Current Threat To Peace Needs Assembly Look

Ex-President Hoover Also Slated To Appear Before Congress Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Truman said today "current threats to world peace" should be taken before the United Nations General Assembly.

Truman appeared as a witness before a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee which is considering possible recommendations for revisions of the U. N. charter.

"Wherever we can, we should use the United Nations," Truman said.

"And we should use it now by bringing before the General Assembly the current threats to world peace."

Truman did not mention Formosa or Red China. But his testimony carried the strong implication he felt that the United States should air the Formosa question before the U. N. General Assembly.

The Eisenhower administration has sought to arrange a cease-fire in the Formosa area through the U. N. The move collapsed when Red China rejected a U.N. invitation to discuss the possibility.

The big, marble-pillared Senate caucus room, where the hearing was held, was filled with spectators long before Truman appeared. He got a standing ovation upon entering.

Truman told the Senate subcommittee he was sure the U.N. Charter "is susceptible of improvement." He added:

"But we ought not to underestimate the difficulties and dangers involved in trying to get improvements at this time."

Truman cautioned that this country "ought to be extremely

Dulles Expected To Ban China Visit

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles is expected to reject again the request of an American couple to visit their airman son in his Red China prison.

Mrs. Harold Fischer of Swea City, Iowa, said she and her husband would renew their request although they had received a letter from U. N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold which she said advised against a trip to Red China at this time.

Hammarskjold is seeking the release of their son and other American fliers held by the Reds.

Albert Einstein Dies At Age 76

World Famous Scientist Credited As Being Mathematical Genius

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—World-famous scientist Albert Einstein died at 1:15 a. m. today at Princeton Hospital.

Einstein, who was 76, had been admitted to the hospital at noon Friday. The hospital said the cause of death was inflammation of the gall bladder.

Einstein, who had secluded himself from public contact in recent years, had been attached to the Institute for Advanced Study here.

The quiet, unpretentious wizard of mathematics and physics spent his lifetime searching for a unified mathematical concept of the laws that govern the universe.

Born in Ulm, Germany, March 14, 1879, of middle class Jewish parents, he was swept to international fame by the theory of relativity which he devised at the age of 26.

A REVOLUTIONARY idea, it added a fourth dimension, time, to the trio of length, breadth and width which had formed man's basic knowledge of the measurement of matter. It also astounded scientists by disputing Newton's law of gravitation.

It was Einstein's disclosure, many years ago, that a small quantity of matter could produce astronomical quantities of energy, which was so spectacularly proved by the first atomic bomb.

But, the famous, white-haired scientist looked upon the A-bomb with misgivings.

In 1945, shortly after the dropping of the bomb on Hiroshima, he commented:

"At present atomic energy is not a boon to mankind, but a menace."

He saw one hope, however, that "it may intimidate the human race to bring order into its international affairs, which, without pressure of fear, it undoubtedly would not do."

A theoretical physicist, the tools of his trade were a fountain pen and a pad of paper.

Though few people understood Einstein's complex theories, his work is one of the important bases of today's electronic and television industries, and the great industrial developments which rely partly on the laws of atomic mass and energy.

He received the Nobel Prize in physics in 1921 and the world heaped honors and adulation upon the modest scientist, who pleaded:

"LET EVERY man be respected as an individual and no man idolized. It is an irony of fate that I myself have been the recipient of excessive admiration and respect from my fellows through no fault of my own."

During recent years, Einstein took stands on issues far removed from the realm of theoretical physics. He said he was compelled to do so by his "passionate sense of social justice and social responsibility."

He headed a group of nationally prominent scientists who comprised the Emergency Committee of Atomic Scientists. The organization was formed "to advance the use of atomic energy in ways beneficial to mankind."

In a message to the World College of Intellects at Warsaw in 1948, Einstein advocated a "supranational organization" to own what he called "horrible weapons" devised in recent years.

He was a member of a committee of 15 famous scientists, formed in 1948, as the scientists' committee on loyalty problems, to provide a fair deal for scientists accused of disloyalty to the U. S.

The famous professor was granted the Wendell Willkie "One World Award" for 1948 "because he gave the world more than a new conception of the cosmos."

"In an age in which the ivory tower was the accepted intellectual home for scientists, he recognized that scientists, like every men, are involved in mankind, and cannot avoid taking a stand on the great moral issues of the time," the award citation said.

Spring Snowstorm Clogs Mountains

DENVER (AP)—A late spring snow storm in California's Sierra mountains today stalled an estimated 350 cars with snowfall as deep as 18 inches.

Elsewhere there was considerable cloudiness, but rainfall was confined mainly to the Northern Rockies, the Northern Plains and the Upper Mississippi Valley.

California highway patrolmen reported none of the 200 motorists stalled on U. S. 40 were in danger.

The patrolmen said highway crews on U. S. 50, to the south of U. S. 40, were working swiftly to free the other 150 stalled drivers.

It was slightly cooler in the eastern Great Lakes area today.

Blast Heard Just Before Airliner Falls

BOMBABY, India (AP)—Surviving Air India crewmen say a "muffled explosion" preceded the crash of their four-engined plane which carried 11 Bandung-bound Communists to death in the China Sea last Monday.

The government-owned airline quoted the three rescued crewmen yesterday as saying the "explosion" was followed by fire "emanating from an extraneous source wholly unconnected with the structure of the aircraft."

The statement was issued as Britain and Red China swapped counter-charges over the plane incident which has grown into an international dispute. Investigators from Red China, India and Indonesia were scheduled to fly to the crash scene today.

Peiping radio charged the plane was sabotaged in an attempt to "assassinate our beloved Premier Chou Enlai and the entire Chinese delegation to the Asian-African conference." Chou reached Bandung yesterday after a flight marked by super security precautions.

The British government accused Red China in a note made public yesterday of trying to make political propaganda out of the crash without first investigating the cause.

Dr. Hugh Evans Quits Dayton Pulpit

DAYTON (AP)—Dr. Hugh I. Evans has resigned his pastorate at Westminster Church here to become director of the Presbyterian Foundation in New York.

Dr. Evans, 67, announced the move yesterday to his congregation. In his 32 years at the church, Westminster has become Ohio's largest Presbyterian church, with a 3,118 membership today.

He was moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. In 1950-51, and is now president of the church's board of national missions and a member of the general council of the church.

Accidents Kill 17 Over Weekend

COLUMBUS (AP) — Traffic accidents killed 13 persons in Ohio during the weekend.

That figure does not include the four young people killed by a single crash Friday at 5:15 p. m. near Marion.

The survey, covering the period from 6 p. m. Friday through last midnight, lists nine traffic deaths Saturday, with two Friday night and three yesterday.

In other accidents last weekend, two men were drowned, an 8-year-old Cleveland boy hanged himself with a piece of braided rawhide and a man was killed by lumber that fell on him. Altogether, 17 accidental deaths were reported.

Reserve Draft Eyed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee was expected to veto today the Pentagon's bid to use a "draft" in building up the military reserves.

EVIDENTLY ROUGH SLEDDING is in store for Bernard H. York, as he is greeted "warmly" by Chief Attendant Peggy McGarvin at the Humane Society Animal shelter in Pasadena, Calif. York, who is a college student, pleaded guilty to cruelty after he was arrested and charged with dousing a cat with alcohol and setting it afire. Part of the court-imposed punishment is that he work as a cleanup man at the shelter. The above photo was made as he told Miss McGarvin, "I'll do just what I'm told, nothing more," and she snapped back, "You'll clean kennels until you learn to like it."

Cancer Drive Now Under Way Here

Main efforts in Pickaway County's 1955 Cancer Crusade opened today, aimed at a district goal of $5,000.

The local drive is part of the nationwide campaign, which has a goal of $24 million. Volunteer workers in Circleville and elsewhere in the county began early Monday to carry out a highly organized solicitation plan.

Dr. J. A. Cunningham, chairman of this year's drive in Pickaway County, pointed out that both the national and local goals have been increased, reflecting the growing needs of the relentless battle against one of the world's top killers.

"This increase has been made necessary," Dr. Cunningham said, "by the increased demands for funds for research, education, and service to the cancer patient. There can be no slackening in our research program—the greatest ever launched against a disease."

APRIL HAS been designated Cancer Control Month by President Eisenhower, Governor Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, and Mayor Hedges of Circleville. The local campaign went into its two-week home stretch Sunday with special services at many of the district churches.

Approximately 325 volunteer workers in this district have received their assignments.

Noting the size of the ranks aiding the drive, Dr. Cunningham said:

"If the number and determination of the volunteers are an indication, we have a singular success ahead of us. We are not only going over the top again this year, but our education program—an integral part of Cancer Control Month—is going to save many more lives."

Workers started Mondays with a house-to-house, door-to-door canvass for funds, and to distribute literature.

Meanwhile, district efforts were being guided from headquarters of the Pickaway County Cancer Society, 127 W. Mound St.

VOLUNTEERS will work under assignments from the following chairmen:

Mrs. Clark Will, Mrs. Norman Kutler, Mrs. Kermit Dountz, and Mrs. Francis McGinnis.

The Rev. Fred Ketner is township chairman.

Students Named To Honor Society

Ceremonies for initation of 47 Pickaway County high schools students into the National Honor Society were witnessed by approximately 130 persons at Walnut Township School.

Robert Wright, of Ashville-Harrison High School, was elected president of the society. Dale Drake, of Saltcreek, is vice-president; Patsy Fausnaugh, of Scioto, secretary; Virgil Anderson, of Williamsport, chaplain; and Bill Drum, of Walnut, sergeant-at-arms.

Assisting the officers on the initiating team were Mary Anne Noecker and Charles Hines, both of Walnut.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Fred Ketner. Group singing followed, with Yvonne Gibson, of Jackson, as accompanist. She also gave a piano solo, as did Miriam Ward, of Scioto, and Martha Smith, of Williamsport.

A TRIO COMPOSED of Judy Goeller, Dottie List and Martha Rhoads, of Pickaway, sang, "Spring Rain". A trampoline act was put on by Charles Hardin and Jack Hutchison, of Ashville-Harrison.

A presentation of guards to officers was made. George McDowell, county superintendent of schools, announced the new officers, the election being held earlier in the program.

Mrs. Jud Dresbach, Walnut teacher, coached and worked with the officers in the initiation. Miss Helen Irwin, commercial teacher at the same school, conducted her class in making the programs.

Miss Mary Jane Miller, home economics teacher, supervised the banquet, which was served by the Walnut senior class.

HONOR SOCIETY candidates include the following:

Sharon Appler, Walnut; Sally Armstrong, Saltcreek; Doris Axe, Ashville-Harrison; David Betz, Walnut; Phyllis Bochard, New Holland; Ruth Bochard, New Holland; Judy Bowers, Ashville-Harrison; David Brown, Deercreek.

Agnes Carle, Deercreek; Mary Lou Cloud, Ashville - Harrison; James Cochenour, Deercreek; Bonnie Crumley, Walnut; Gail Duvall, Scioto; Carolyn Eitel, Jack-

Legion Patrol Unit To Parley

COLUMBUS (AP)—American Legion members from all parts of Ohio are expected next weekend for the eleventh annual convention of the Ohio State Patrol Auxiliary.

The auxiliary, some 5,000 strong, is made up of Legionnarires and has the purpose of assisting the state patrol whenever additional manpower is required.

Legion National Commander Seaborn P. Collins will address the convention. He will include comments on the relationship of the auxiliary to national security.

Voice Of Reason Said World Need

Asian Chief Hopes Asian-African Nations Can Help Global Status

BANDUNG, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesian President Achmad Soekarno opened the 29-nation Asian-African conference today with a declaration that the two continents' population of more than a billion "can inject the voice of reason into world affairs."

Soekarno, one of Asia's greatest orators, spoke slowly in flawless English and declared: "Perhaps now more than at any other moment in history, society, government and statesmanship need to be based upon the highest code of morality.

"It is the subordination of everything to the well being of mankind.

"But today we are faced with a situation where the well being of mankind is not always the primary consideration. Many who are in places of high power think, rather, of controlling the world."

"We are living in a world of fear," he continued, fear of the future, of the hydrogen bomb and of ideologies.

"I hope this conference will give guidance to mankind, will point out to mankind the way which it must take to attain safety and peace. I hope it will give evidence that Asia and Africa have been reborn, nay—a new Asia and a new Africa have been born."

THE ONLY OTHER major speaker at the opening public session was Indonesian Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo, elected conference chairman unanimously. He was nominated by Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser and seconded by Red China's Chou En-lai, Jordan's Foreign Minister Sayyed Wahid-Salah and Philippine delegate Carlos P. Romulo.

Iraqi Foreign Minister Fadhil Jamali circulated a statement vigorously denouncing communism as a "new form of colonialism more deadlier than the old one." He also defended military alliances such as Iraq's pact with Turkey and Britain as "essential for self preservation until such time when the Communists may change their minds and hearts."

Jamali's outspoken attack on the Reds was expected to anger both Chou and India's neutralist Prime Minister Nehru, one of the five conference hosts.

Sastroamidjojo introduced three subjects likely to loom large in the conference discussions — control of nuclear weapons, the five principles of coexistence first formulated by Nehru and espoused by Chou and Burmese Premier U Nu, and the admission of Asian-African countries including Communist China into the U. N.

Sastroamidjojo did not name the applicant nations but said the conference is "faced with the task to try and find a solution to the problem of United Nations membership for Asian-African countries which for one reason or another are debarred from it."

THE INDONESIAN premier rejected preconference suspicion he said had been aroused in some quarters that "our aim is to create another source of tension by constituting an anti-Western and even anti-white bloc."

The participants in the conference, he continued, must ask themselves: "Where do the peoples of Asia and Africa stand—and for what?"

"I answer this question by stating we stand for peace and for peace only. We do not want domination either by force or by ideology, no matter from whatever quarter it may come," he said.

Ohio's Polio Vaccine Due This Week

COLUMBUS (AP)—You might get that shot this week, Johnny.

Health officials in many parts of Ohio had hoped to get some of the Salk anti-polio vaccine today.

But Dr. Martin Keller, acting chief of the division of communicable diseases for the Ohio Department of Health, doesn't think vaccine shipments will arrive before the middle of this week.

But when the shipments start arriving at eight distribution points, the vaccine will be distributed within a matter of hours to local health officials throughout the state.

In Columbus, where inoculations had been scheduled to start today, Dr. Robert A. Evans, Franklin County health commissioner, says he will move his schedule backward a day at a time until the vaccine arrives. Then, "when the vaccine arrives we'll be ready to go within a few hours," he said.

Other points planning to give inoculations next week or later this week include Washington C. H., Wilmington, Steubenville, Dayton and Athens.

What's causing the delay in shipping the vaccine which is being furnished by the polio foundation?

Young Ohio Dems Pass Resolutions

COLUMBUS (AP)—The executive committee of the League of Young Democratic Clubs of Ohio has gone on record favoring an appointed state board of education.

Meeting yesterday in its bimonthly session the group also endorsed a voting age of 18, and formally expressed regret at the death April 13 of Summit County Chairman Clarence E. Motz.

A committee was appointed to investigate the feasibility of holding a mayor's day in Columbus in August or September, for the nearly 40 Democratic mayors in Ohio.

Radio Free Europe Said Doing Good

COLUMBUS (AP)—A broadcaster for Radio Free Europe says RFE is exposing Communist undercover agents in Iron Curtain countries and thus encouraging the "disappearance" of some.

Oleg Zabrodsky, Czechoslovakian broadcaster of RFE, said here yesterday an estimated 80 per cent of his countrymen are reached by RFE's beams. The broadcasts go also to Bulgaria, Poland, Rumania and Hungary.

Zabrodosky discussed the radio operation with Mucio Delgrado, New York program manager for RFE, and Maj. George Fielding Eliot, lecturer and writer.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Some 1,100 Nickel Plate Railroad firemen are voting in a National Railway Mediation Board election on which of two big railroad locomotive unions should represent them.

Fleeing Autoist Killed In Crash

ELYRIA (AP)—A 23-year-old factory worker, who police said was fleeing from them in his automobile, was killed today when the car shot off a curve and piled into a stack of bricks.

The victim, George T. Crombie, 23, had parked his car in the lot of a closed restaurant. Police said that when they stopped to investigate, Crombie's car shot out of the lot and headed for Lorain at a 90-mile-per-hour clip. As his car hit the bricks and a parked automobile, his head was crushed between his car door and the door jam.

Girl, 17, Held For Shooting Man

COLUMBUS (AP)—Police were to confer today with juvenile officials in the death of a Columbus man they said was shot to death by a 17-year-old girl.

Dead from revolver bullets in the chest, arm and back is Walter Brown, 35. Investigators said Marcia Howe told them she shot Brown early yesterday after she found him choking his wife, Shirley Ann. Mrs. Brown, 45, is Marcia's cousin.

Martin, Holliday And Barnetson Set To Leave

Latter Two Quitting County School Posts But Martin Fired

At least three Pickaway County school coaches will not be back for next season, it was learned today.

Bill Barnetson, of Ashville, Art Holliday, of Williamsport, and Dick Martin, of Pickaway, will be leaving. Holliday's termination is effective on May 1, the others at the end of the semester.

Barnetson and Holliday are apparently leaving of their own accord. Martin's departure came about through action of the school board.

Of the three, only Barnetson has been at his post more than one year, having arrived two years ago. While at Ashville, he has piled up the following creditable record:

TWO YEARS AGO — second place in basketball and winners of the county tournament; second in football; first in county baseball; first in summer baseball league;

Last year—second place in football; a tie with Scioto for the county basketball title and again winners of the elimination tournament.

Barnetson said he wanted to work with a bigger school, giving this as his reason for leaving. Although his resignation has been in for some time, he said he still has no definite plans.

"I have contacted some schools," he said. "I would like just to be at a larger high school."

Barnetson is a 1948 graduate of Ohio State University. He coached at Belle Point and Meeker High Schools and spent a short time in private industry before coming to Ashville.

HE, HIS WIFE and two children have already moved from Ashville to Columbus.

Holliday said he has accepted a selling job with Parke Davis Co., of Detroit, Mich., a large pharmaceutical firm. He said he believed he would be assigned to the Columbus area.

"It's a lot more money than I can make in teaching," he said. "Besides, there are many other benefits."

Holliday said that a friend of his, and former Walnut School teacher, Bob Carpenter, also recently went with the firm and recommended Holliday for the job.

"I took a test and was told last Friday that I had passed," he add-

"TRELLIS WITH SUSPENDERS TO HOLD ITS PLANTS UP"

Suspenders were invented in 300 B.C. by the Phoenicians who called them "sling shots." Several hundred years later the bow and arrow was invented and so, in order to take care of the surplus slingshots, Pants were invented. The original purpose of pants was to hold the suspenders down. However they didn't because it was another 400 years before anyone invented buttons. But suspenders can still be dangerous. My brother, Stanley, who only weighed 97 lbs. B.C.A. (Before Charles Atlas) once bought a pair of powerful elastic suspenders. The suspenders had such a strong pull that when Stanley wore them he couldn't walk. He hovered 36 inches above the floor. Used to scare the be jabbers out of the cat.

Spring Snowstorm Clogs Mountains

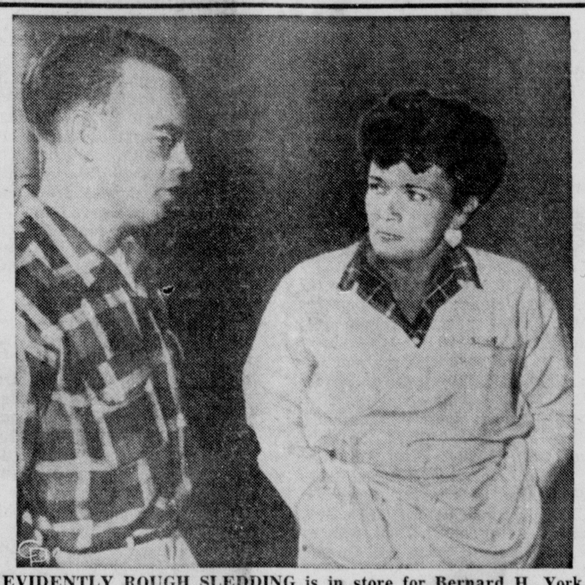
DENVER (AP)—A late spring snow storm in California's Sierra mountains today stalled an estimated 350 cars with snowfall as deep as 18 inches.

Elsewhere there was considerable cloudiness, but rainfall was confined mainly to the Northern Rockies, the Northern Plains and the Upper Mississippi Valley.

California highway patrolmen reported none of the 200 motorists stalled on U. S. 40 were in danger.

The patrolmen said highway crews on U. S. 50, to the south of U. S. 40, were working swiftly to free the other 150 stalled drivers.

It was slightly cooler in the eastern Great Lakes area today.



EVIDENTLY ROUGH SLEDDING is in store for Bernard H. York, as he is greeted "warmly" by Chief Attendant Peggy McGarvin at the Humane Society Animal shelter in Pasadena, Calif. York, who is a college student, pleaded guilty to cruelty after he was arrested and charged with dousing a cat with alcohol and setting it afire. Part of the court-imposed punishment is that he work as a cleanup man at the shelter. The above photo was made as he told Miss McGarvin, "I'll do just what I'm told, nothing more," and she snapped back, "You'll clean kennels until you learn to like it."

Cancer Drive Now Under Way Here

Main efforts in Pickaway County's 1955 Cancer Crusade opened today, aimed at a district goal of $5,000.

The local drive is part of the nationwide campaign, which has a goal of $24 million. Volunteer workers in Circleville and elsewhere in the county began early Monday to carry out a highly organized solicitation plan.

Dr. J. A. Cunningham, chairman of this year's drive in Pickaway County, pointed out that both the national and local goals have been increased, reflecting the growing needs of the relentless battle against one of the world's top killers.

"This increase has been made necessary," Dr. Cunningham said, "by the increased demands for funds for research, education, and service to the cancer patient. There can be no slackening in our research program—the greatest ever launched against a disease."

APRIL HAS been designated Cancer Control Month by President Eisenhower, Governor Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, and Mayor Hedges of Circleville. The local campaign went into its two-week home stretch Sunday with special services at many of the district churches.

Approximately 325 volunteer workers in this district have received their assignments.

Noting the size of the ranks aiding the drive, Dr. Cunningham said:

"If the number and determination of the volunteers are an indication, we have a singular success ahead of us. We are not only going over the top again this year, but our education program—an integral part of Cancer Control Month—is going to save many more lives."

Workers started Mondays with a house-to-house, door-to-door canvass for funds, and to distribute literature.

Meanwhile, district efforts were being guided from headquarters of the Pickaway County Cancer Society, 127 W. Mound St.

VOLUNTEERS will work under assignments from the following chairmen:

Mrs. Clark Will, Mrs. Norman Kutler, Mrs. Kermit Dountz, and Mrs. Francis McGinnis.

The Rev. Fred Ketner is township chairman.

Students Named To Honor Society

Ceremonies for initation of 47 Pickaway County high schools students into the National Honor Society were witnessed by approximately 130 persons at Walnut Township School.

Robert Wright, of Ashville-Harrison High School, was elected president of the society. Dale Drake, of Saltcreek, is vice-president; Patsy Fausnaugh, of Scioto, secretary; Virgil Anderson, of Williamsport, chaplain; and Bill Drum, of Walnut, sergeant-at-arms.

Assisting the officers on the initiating team were Mary Anne Noecker and Charles Hines, both of Walnut.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Fred Ketner. Group singing followed, with Yvonne Gibson, of Jackson, as accompanist. She also gave a piano solo, as did Miriam Ward, of Scioto, and Martha Smith, of Williamsport.

A TRIO COMPOSED of Judy Goeller, Dottie List and Martha Rhoads, of Pickaway, sang, "Spring Rain". A trampoline act was put on by Charles Hardin and Jack Hutchison, of Ashville-Harrison.

A presentation of guards to officers was made. George McDowell, county superintendent of schools, announced the new officers, the election being held earlier in the program.

Mrs. Jud Dresbach, Walnut teacher, coached and worked with the officers in the initiation. Miss Helen Irwin, commercial teacher at the same school, conducted her class in making the programs.

Miss Mary Jane Miller, home economics teacher, supervised the banquet, which was served by the Walnut senior class.

Legion Patrol Unit To Parley

COLUMBUS (AP)—American Legion members from all parts of Ohio are expected next weekend for the eleventh annual convention of the Ohio State Patrol Auxiliary.

The auxiliary, some 5,000 strong, is made up of Legionnarires and has the purpose of assisting the state patrol whenever additional manpower is required.

Legion National Commander Seaborn P. Collins will address the convention. He will include comments on the relationship of the auxiliary to national security.

Voice Of Reason Said World Need

Asian Chief Hopes Asian-African Nations Can Help Global Status

BANDUNG, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesian President Achmad Soekarno opened the 29-nation Asian-African conference today with a declaration that the two continents' population of more than a billion "can inject the voice of reason into world affairs."

Soekarno, one of Asia's greatest orators, spoke slowly in flawless English and declared: "Perhaps now more than at any other moment in history, society, government and statesmanship need to be based upon the highest code of morality.

"It is the subordination of everything to the well being of mankind.

"But today we are faced with a situation where the well being of mankind is not always the primary consideration. Many who are in places of high power think, rather, of controlling the world."

"We are living in a world of fear," he continued, fear of the future, of the hydrogen bomb and of ideologies.

"I hope this conference will give guidance to mankind, will point out to mankind the way which it must take to attain safety and peace. I hope it will give evidence that Asia and Africa have been reborn, nay—a new Asia and a new Africa have been born."

THE ONLY OTHER major speaker at the opening public session was Indonesian Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo, elected conference chairman unanimously. He was nominated by Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser and seconded by Red China's Chou En-lai, Jordan's Foreign Minister Sayyed Wahid-Salah and Philippine delegate Carlos P. Romulo.

Iraqi Foreign Minister Fadhil Jamali circulated a statement vigorously denouncing communism as a "new form of colonialism more deadlier than the old one." He also defended military alliances such as Iraq's pact with Turkey and Britain as "essentia! for self preservation until such time when the Communists may change their minds and hearts."

Jamali's outspoken attack on the Reds was expected to anger both Chou and India's neutralist Prime Minister Nehru, one of the five conference hosts.

Sastroamidjojo introduced three subjects likely to loom large in the conference discussions — control of nuclear weapons, the five principles of coexistence first formulated by Nehru and espoused by Chou and Burmese Premier U Nu, and the admission of Asian-African countries including Communist China into the U. N.

Sastroamidjojo did not name the applicant nations but said the conference is "faced with the task to try and find a solution to the problem of United Nations membership for Asian-African countries which for one reason or another are debarred from it."

THE INDONESIAN premier rejected preconference suspicion he said had been aroused in some quarters that "our aim is to create another source of tension by constituting an anti-Western and even anti-white bloc."

The participants in the conference, he continued, must ask themselves: "Where do the peoples of Asia and Africa stand—and for what?"

"I answer this question by stating we stand for peace and for peace only. We do not want domination either by force or by ideology, no matter from whatever quarter it may come," he said.

Ohio's Polio Vaccine Due This Week

COLUMBUS (AP)—You might get that shot this week, Johnny.

Health officials in many parts of Ohio had hoped to get some of the Salk anti-polio vaccine today.

But Dr. Martin Keller, acting chief of the division of communicable diseases for the Ohio Department of Health, doesn't think vaccine shipments will arrive before the middle of this week.

But when the shipments start arriving at eight distribution points, the vaccine will be distributed within a matter of hours to local health officials throughout the state.

In Columbus, where inoculations had been scheduled to start today, Dr. Robert A. Evans, Franklin County health commissioner, says he will move his schedule backward a day at a time until the vaccine arrives. Then, "when the vaccine arrives we'll be ready to go within a few hours," he said.

Other points planning to give inoculations next week or later this week include Washington C. H., Wilmington, Steubenville, Dayton and Athens.

What's causing the delay in shipping the vaccine which is being furnished by the polio foundation?

Young Ohio Dems Pass Resolutions

COLUMBUS (AP)—The executive committee of the League of Young Democratic Clubs of Ohio has gone on record favoring an appointed state board of education.

Meeting yesterday in its bimonthly session the group also endorsed a voting age of 18, and formally expressed regret at the death April 13 of Summit County Chairman Clarence E. Motz.

A committee was appointed to investigate the feasibility of holding a mayor's day in Columbus in August or September, for the nearly 40 Democratic mayors in Ohio.

Radio Free Europe Said Doing Good

COLUMBUS (AP)—A broadcaster for Radio Free Europe says RFE is exposing Communist undercover agents in Iron Curtain countries and thus encouraging the "disappearance" of some.

Oleg Zabrodsky, Czechoslovakian broadcaster of RFE, said here yesterday an estimated 80 per cent of his countrymen are reached by RFE's beams. The broadcasts go also to Bulgaria, Poland, Rumania and Hungary.

Zabrodosky discussed the radio operation with Mucio Delgrado, New York program manager for RFE, and Maj. George Fielding Eliot, lecturer and writer.

Martin, Holliday And Barnetson Set To Leave

Latter Two Quitting County School Posts But Martin Fired

At least three Pickaway County school coaches will not be back for next season, it was learned today.

Bill Barnetson, of Ashville, Art Holliday, of Williamsport, and Dick Martin, of Pickaway, will be leaving. Holliday's termination is effective on May 1, the others at the end of the semester.

Barnetson and Holliday are apparently leaving of their own accord. Martin's departure came about through action of the school board.

Of the three, only Barnetson has been at his post more than one year, having arrived two years ago. While at Ashville, he has piled up the following creditable record:

TWO YEARS AGO — second place in basketball and winners of the county tournament; second in football; first in county baseball; first in summer baseball league;

Last year—second place in football; a tie with Scioto for the county basketball title and again winners of the elimination tournament.

Barnetson said he wanted to work with a bigger school, giving this as his reason for leaving. Although his resignation has been in for some time, he said he still has no definite plans.

"I have contacted some schools," he said. "I would like just to be at a larger high school."

Barnetson is a 1948 graduate of Ohio State University. He coached at Belle Point and Meeker High Schools and spent a short time in private industry before coming to Ashville.

HE, HIS WIFE and two children have already moved from Ashville to Columbus.

Holliday said he has accepted a selling job with Parke Davis Co., of Detroit, Mich., a large pharmaceutical firm. He said he believed he would be assigned to the Columbus area.

"It's a lot more money than I can make in teaching," he said. "Besides, there are many other benefits."

Holliday said that a friend of his, and former Walnut School teacher, Bob Carpenter, also recently went with the firm and recommended Holliday for the job.

"I took a test and was told last Friday that I had passed," he add-

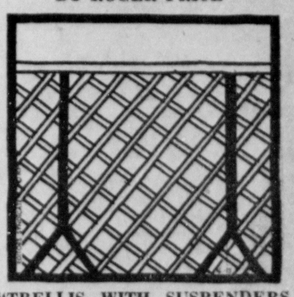
DROODLES

BY ROGER PRICE



"TRELLIS WITH SUSPENDERS TO HOLD ITS PLANTS UP"

Suspenders were invented in 300 B.C. by the Phoenicians who called them "sling shots." Several hundred years later the bow and arrow was invented and so, in order to take care of the surplus slingshots, Pants were invented. The original purpose of pants was to hold the suspenders down. However they didn't because it was another 400 years before anyone invented buttons. But suspenders can still be dangerous. My brother, Stanley, who only weighed 97 lbs. B.C.A. (Before Charles Atlas) once bought a pair of powerful elastic suspenders. The suspenders had such a strong pull that when Stanley wore them he couldn't walk. He hovered 3/8 inches above the floor. Used to scare the bejabbers out of the cat.

Fleeing Autoist Killed In Crash

ELYRIA (AP)—A 23-year-old factory worker, who police said was fleeing from them in his automobile, was killed today when the car shot off a curve and piled into a stack of bricks.

The victim, George T. Crombie, 23, had parked his car in the lot of a closed restaurant. Police said that when they stopped to investigate, Crombie's car shot out of the lot and headed for Lorain at a 90-mile-per-hour clip. As his car hit the bricks and a parked automobile, his head was crushed between his car door and the door jam.

Girl, 17, Held For Shooting Man

COLUMBUS (AP)—Police were to confer today with juvenile officials in the death of a Columbus man they said was shot to death by a 17-year-old girl.

Dead from revolver bullets in the chest, arm and back is Walter Brown, 35. Investigators said Marcia Howe told them she shot Brown early yesterday after she found him choking his wife, Shirley Ann. Mrs. Brown, 45, is Marcia's cousin.

Cedar Heights Row May Go Before Council

Warm repercussions over conditions in the city's north annex were believed building up today in advance of city council's regular meeting Tuesday night.

Irate property owners on and around Cedar Heights Road touched off the potent hassle last week, accusing the city of long and needless delays in putting in storm sewer lines and keeping the streets resurfaced. A spokesman for the Cedar Heights area declared the situation would "soon become a hot issue", but he declined to elaborate.

City Service Director Dewey Speakman defended the work of his department in the area annexed to the city last year, and other city officials said they planned to issue a statement prior to the Tuesday meeting.

Another touchy subject that may flare into debate when the lawmakers gather involves protable traffic safety signs used by at least two schools in Circleville. The metal standards, painted with a policeman's picture on one side and advertising a soft drink on the other, are placed in mid-street as a safeguard for the school children.

Council at its last meeting gave its authority for use of the safeguards, but City Solicitor George Gerhardt confirmed a report that council's right to grant such authority has been challenged. Gerhardt said he was studying the legal points involved.

careful not to lose what we already have in the United Nations, because what we have now is very essential to world peace."

Truman went on to say the U.N. is the "best instrument mankind has" for "demanding action to reduce the danger" of atomic and hydrogen warfare.

"We should also use the U.N.," Truman said, "as a means for pressing on with our hopes and aspirations for disarmament. Every human in the world lives today in the shadow of atomic warfare which could destroy civilization as we know it, and, quite possibly, corrupt the blood stream of the human race."

TRUMAN SAID it would be far more difficult today to set up the United Nations than it was 10 years ago.

He said "the frequent use of the Soviet veto" has rendered the Security Council "virtually powerless to meet any serious international difficulties."

But Soviet membership in the U. N., Truman said, has been an advantage "because the peoples of the world have been able to compare the Soviet's conduct to the standards of international peace laid down in the charter and to see that Soviets have violated the basic ideals of mankind."

Accidents, Deaths Up Over Weekend

Accidents and traffic deaths continued to mount in and round Pickaway County.

One death was reported in a car-truck accident in Shadesville, at the intersection of Routes 23 and 665. This is two miles north of the Pickaway-Franklin County line.

State Patrolman Bob Greene reports a Mt. Sterling woman was hurt in an accident Saturday on Route 56, 7.2 miles west of Circleville. City police report an accident at the intersection of E. Main and Washington Sts. the same day. Three were injured.

Tires on a B-36 superbomber each contain enough nylon to make 15,000 pairs of stockings.

Ike Gets Data On Buildup By Red Chinese

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower has received intelligence information that the Chinese Communists are engaged in "an extensive bulidup" of Red airpower opposite Formosa, which the U. S. is committed to defend.

Announcing this here yesterday after a conference with the President, Secretary of State Dulles said the buildup has "grave implications." He described it as:

1. "More intense and more broad in its scope" than the United States had been aware of until a few days ago.

2. A buildup which "indicates a higher degree of capability" on the part of the Communists to launch an attack "than we had been aware of a few weeks ago."

In a formal statement after a two-hour meeting with the President Dulles said:

"In relation to China, we discussed the grave implications of an extensive buildup, now in progress, by the Chinese Communists of offensive airpower on the China mainland opposite Formosa."

HIS STATEMENT, which was approved by Eisenhower, stirred new interest in a prediction attributed last month to Adm. Robert B. Carney that the Reds would be capable of launching an assault on the Chinese Nationalist Matsu Islands by April 15.

The prediction the Communists would be set for an attack on Quemoy, another off - shore island, about May 15 was also attributed to Carney.

Carney, chief of naval operations, later flatly denied he ever made such a prediction. Some newsmen who attended a dinner where Carney expressed his views challenged the admiral's memory of what he said.

Dulles gave this summary of other aspects of world problems:

1. It appears "the Soviet union now is willing to alter its 10-year stubborn policy of maintaining indefinitely Red forces of occupation in Austria."

But Dulles added "nothing should be taken for granted" on the basis of last week's negotiations between Russia and Austria on an Austrian treaty.

2. Because of the developments looking toward an Austrian treaty, the prospects for a Big Four conference are "encouraging" if "the full facts on the Moscow negotiations do not disillusion us." Dulles declined to be pinned down as to whether he was talking about a conference of the chiefs of state or at a lower level.

3. THE SITUATION in Viet Nam in Southeast Asia, where the United States is trying to prevent any new Communist aggression, is "difficult," but there is "no reason for discouragement."

4. There has been 'steady progress toward putting into effect the Paris agreements to rearm West Germany and restore its sovereignty, and toward creation of a Western European Union.

5. The President hopes the conference of 29 African and Asian nations opening today in Bandung, Indonesia, "will heed the universal longing of the peoples of the world for peace"

Ammer Hints New Drive On Tipsy Autoists

Preparing steps to revive the district's highway safety committee, Pickaway County Prosecutor William Ammer indicated belief today that drunken drivers—more than any other one factor—are the reason for the district's soaring traffic toll.

Plans to pump new life into the local safety committee, inactive for many months, were put into operation on the suggestion of U. C. Felty, director of the State Department of Highway Safety.

Notified that Pickaway County's traffic death toll is running more than 100 percent ahead of last year, Felty pointed out that the committee here should be in charge of any moves to reduce the death list. Felty's office has promised to assist Ammer in getting the committee into action.

Meanwhile, Ammer said signs of drinking were detected in at least five of the accidents that caused deaths so far this year. He explained that this did not mean that all of the five accidents were due to drunken driving, as interpreted by the law, but added:

"Liquor was involved to some degree in five out of the eight fatal accidents we've had so far. And that to my mind means that drunken driving is the foremost peril that we have to watch in working to cut the death toll."

ALEMITE CD-2 CONCENTRATE A PRODUCT OF SW STEWART WARNER

No ordinary motor oil additive can make a guarantee like this because no ordinary additive performs like Alemite CD-2!

You see, modern stop-and-go driving leaves your wonderful, powerful, modern engine cold—never gives it a chance to get hot and show the power it is designed to deliver. And that means trouble. Sludge and goo form inside the engine—rust and corrosion attack it—you are cheated, regardless of the gas or oil you use. You get less power, sluggish performance—and a chance of needless repair bills. That's why your car needs CD-2.

CD-2 does all this or your money back!

1. Gives any engine an on-the-road tune-up—new power—new performance—new life!
2. Dissolves and removes lacquer-like deposits on valves, rings, and pistons which make them stick.
3. Eliminates damaging rust and bearing corrosion caused by today's stop-and-go driving.
4. Banishes harmful crankcase sludge and "goo".
5. Gives oil extra wear-resistant quality—cuts friction!
6. Keeps new engines new—helps avoid costly repairs.
7. No kerosene or naphtha to boil away—works from oil change to oil change!

Cedar Heights Row May Go Before Council

Warm repercussions over conditions in the city's north annex were believed building up today in advance of city council's regular meeting Tuesday night.

Irate property owners on and around Cedar Heights Road touched off the potent hassle last week, accusing the city of long and needless delays in putting in storm sewer lines and keeping the streets resurfaced. A spokesman for the Cedar Heights area declared the situation would "soon become a hot issue", but he declined to elaborate.

City Service Director Dewey Speakman defended the work of his department in the area annexed to the city last year, and other city officials said they planned to issue a statement prior to the Tuesday meeting.

Another touchy subject that may flare into debate when the lawmakers gather involves protable traffic safety signs used by at least two schools in Circleville. The metal standards, painted with a policeman's picture on one side and advertising a soft drink on the other, are placed in mid-street as a safeguard for the school children.

Council at its last meeting gave its authority for use of the safeguards, but City Solicitor George Gerhardt confirmed a report that council's right to grant such authority has been challenged. Gerhardt said he was studying the legal points involved.

careful not to lose what we already have in the United Nations, because what we have now is very essential to world peace."

Truman went on to say the U.N. is the "best instrument mankind has" for "demanding action to reduce the danger" of atomic and hydrogen warfare.

"We should also use the U.N.," Truman said, "as a means for pressing on with our hopes and aspirations for disarmament. Every human in the world lives today in the shadow of atomic warfare which could destroy civilization as we know it, and, quite possibly, corrupt the blood stream of the human race."

TRUMAN SAID it would be far more difficult today to set up the United Nations than it was 10 years ago.

He said "the frequent use of the Soviet veto" has rendered the Security Council "virtually powerless to meet any serious international difficulties."

But Soviet membership in the U. N., Truman said, has been an advantage "because the peoples of the world have been able to compare the Soviet's conduct to the standards of international peace laid down in the charter and to see that Soviets have violated the basic ideals of mankind."

BERT POLING

Mr. Bert Poling, 75, of Laurelville, died at 8:05 p. m. Sunday at his residence.

He was a retired telephone maintenance man and lineman, being well remembered for his versatile work at the Laurelville telephone exchange.

Mr. Poling was born in Hocking County, Nov. 25, 1879, a son of Joseph and Mary Ann Van Fossen Poling. His first wife, Susan Congrove, preceded him in death. He is survived by his second wife, Bertha Mace Stevens Poling.

Also among the survivors are: two daughters, Mrs. Edgar Karr of Laurelville, and Mrs. Marshall Downs, of Rock Bridge Route 2; a son, Lowell, of Columbus; 17 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; six stepchildren, John and George Stevens of Tarlton, Edwards Stevens of Chillicothe, Donald Stevens, in the armed forces, and two step-daughters, Mrs. C. D. Young, of Trenton, Mich., and Mrs. Kenneth Pfeiffer, of Lancaster; a brother, Ray Poling, of Laurelville, and a sister, Mrs. A. E. Huffman, of Columbus.

Funeral services for Mr. Poling will be held on Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. in the Laurelville Evangelical United Brethren Church, with the Rev. John McRoberts officiating.

Burial will be in Green Summitt Cemetery at Adelphi at the direction of the Defenbaugh Funeral Home.

Friends may call at the Circleville funeral home Tuesday afternoon and evening. The body will be taken to the church at 10 a. m., where friends may view it until the services begin.

MRS. HARLEY DEFENBAUGH

Mrs. Anna J. Defenbaugh, 83, of Laurelville, died Sunday midnight in Berger Hospital where she had been a patient since suffering a hip injury last December.

She was born in Zanesville, Sept. 2, 1871, the daughter of Gustave and Johanna Ditmar Joch, who settled in Zanesville shortly after coming to this country from Germany. They later moved to Tarlton and operated a tannery there.

The deceased lived in the Tarlton-Laurelville area almost all her life.

Mrs. Defenbaugh is survived by her husband, Harley E. Defenbaugh, whom she married 60 years ago.

Also among the survivors are: two sons, Harold, Circleville funeral director, and William, of Laurelville Route 1; a daughter, Mrs. Pauline Long, of Caldwell, N. J.; seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; two sisters, Miss Edith Joch, and Mrs. Sophia Heckel, both of Columbus.

Mrs. Defenbaugh was a member of the Laurelville Methodist Church.

James Sheridan Sons, of Lancaster, are assisting with the funeral arrangements.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 11 a. m. at the Laurelville Methodist Church, with the Rev. Richard McDowell and the Rev. Charles Reed officiating.

Burial will be in Tarlton Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Defenbaugh Funeral Home in Circleville Tuesday. The body will be removed Wednesday noon to the Laurelville residence, where friends may call Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Accidents, Deaths Up Over Weekend

Accidents and traffic deaths continued to mount in and round Pickaway County.

One death was reported in a car-truck accident in Shadesville, at the intersection of Routes 23 and 665. This is two miles north of the Pickaway-Franklin County line.

State Patrolman Bob Greene reports a Mt. Sterling woman was hurt in an accident Saturday on Route 56, 7.2 miles west of Circleville. City police report an accident at the intersection of E. Main and Washington Sts. the same day. Three were injured.

Tires on a B-36 superbomber each contain enough nylon to make 15,000 pairs of stockings.

Ike Gets Data On Buildup By Red Chinese

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower has received intelligence information that the Chinese Communists are engaged in "an extensive bulidup" of Red airpower opposite Formosa, which the U. S. is committed to defend.

Announcing this here yesterday after a conference with the President, Secretary of State Dulles said the buildup has "grave implications." He described it as:

1. "More intense and more broad in its scope" than the United States had been aware of until a few days ago.

2. A buildup which "indicates a higher degree of capability" on the part of the Communists to launch an attack "than we had been aware of a few weeks ago."

In a formal statement after a two-hour meeting with the President Dulles said:

"In relation to China, we discussed the grave implications of an extensive buildup, now in progress, by the Chinese Communists of offensive airpower on the China mainland opposite Formosa."

HIS STATEMENT, which was approved by Eisenhower, stirred new interest in a prediction attributed last month to Adm. Robert B. Carney that the Reds would be capable of launching an assault on the Chinese Nationalist Matsu Islands by April 15.

The prediction the Communists would be set for an attack on Quemoy, another off - shore island, about May 15 was also attributed to Carney.

Carney, chief of naval operations, later flatly denied he ever made such a prediction. Some newsmen who attended a dinner where Carney expressed his views challenged the admiral's memory of what he said.

Dulles gave this summary of other aspects of world problems:

1. It appears "the Soviet union now is willing to alter its 10-year stubborn policy of maintaining indefinitely Red forces of occupation in Austria."

But Dulles added "nothing should be taken for granted" on the basis of last week's negotiations between Russia and Austria on an Austrian treaty.

2. Because of the developments looking toward an Austrian treaty, the prospects for a Big Four conference are "encouraging" if "the full facts on the Moscow negotiations do not disillusion us." Dulles declined to be pinned down as to whether he was talking about a conference of the chiefs of state or at a lower level.

3. THE SITUATION in Viet Nam in Southeast Asia, where the United States is trying to prevent any new Communist aggression, is "difficult," but there is "no reason for discouragement."

4. There has been 'steady progress toward putting into effect the Paris agreements to rearm West Germany and restore its sovereignty, and toward creation of a Western European Union.

5. The President hopes the conference of 29 African and Asian nations opening today in Bandung, Indonesia, "will heed the universal longing of the peoples of the world for peace"

Ammer Hints New Drive On Tipsy Autoists

Preparing steps to revive the district's highway safety committee, Pickaway County Prosecutor William Ammer indicated belief today that drunken drivers—more than any other one factor—are the reason for the district's soaring traffic toll.

Plans to pump new life into the local safety committee, inactive for many months, were put into operation on the suggestion of U. C. Felty, director of the State Department of Highway Safety.

Notified that Pickaway County's traffic death toll is running more than 100 percent ahead of last year, Felty pointed out that the committee here should be in charge of any moves to reduce the death list. Felty's office has promised to assist Ammer in getting the committee into action.

Meanwhile, Ammer said signs of drinking were detected in at least five of the accidents that caused deaths so far this year. He explained that this did not mean that all of the five accidents were due to drunken driving, as interpreted by the law, but added:

"Liquor was involved to some degree in five out of the eight fatal accidents we've had so far. And that to my mind means that drunken driving is the foremost peril that we have to watch in working to cut the death toll."

World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The West thinks it has troubles. But the 29 Asian and African nations opening a conference today at Bandung, Indonesia, have troubles, too.

They sent more than 600 delegates there, representing over one billion people who include Christians, Buddhists, Moslems, Hindus, Communists, anti Communists and nations such as India called neutralists.

What they have in common is that they are from Asia, Africa, and the Middle East and that most of them are colored. Russia and the other big white powers — the United States and the West Europeans — were not invited.

While the United States and its Western Allies have differences, they are at least united in common defense against communism. The delegates at Bandung do not have even that kind of unity.

India's Prime Minister Nehru may have to struggle with Red China's Premier Chou En-lai, if not for leadership of the conference then at least to chart its direction or to prevent it from following Chou out the window.

Nehru, great critic of the West and soft-talker about China, is a tough anti Communist at home. Chou will probably be asked by some delegates to promise not to start war by attacking Formosa or the Matsu and Quemoy Islands.

That will put him on the spot since Red China poses as a peace lover but has vowed to take the islands. At the same time Nehru and Chou have blasted the anti-Communist Southeast Asia defense organization.

That group's members — the United States, Britain, France, New Zealand, Pakistan, the Philippines, Thailand and Australia — banded together for mutual defense against attack by the Communists of China or North Viet Nam.

Of the eight members only Pakistan, the Philippines and Thailand were invited to Bandung. If the organization is assailed at the conference they can be expected to team up in its defense, led by the Philippines' Carlos Romulo.

At the conference Egypt's Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser would like support for the Arabs' dispute with Israel, which isn't there. But the Arab nations at Bandung —Egypt, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Iraq — don't see eye-to-eye on everything, either.

The first three have criticized Iraq for signing a defense treaty with Trukey which, although present at Bandung, is allied with the West and is not a member of the Arab League.

Some of the Africans and Asians at Bandung — with plenty of reason to remember the long history of West European colonialism, imperialism, exploitation and practice of white supremacy at their expense — will probably tee off on the West.

But at the same time the non-Communists among them, if they make any pretense at reality, must regard Red China as a new threat to their independence.

Red China will try to spread the gospel of goodwill to its neighbors although those neighbors, at the moment they are critical of the West, know the West is the biggest deterrent to Communist China's inclination to gobble them up.

Nevertheless, the West may suffer some damage at this conference if, despite the divergent views of the delegates, the result is increased suspicion and hostility to the West.

School Notes

CIRCLEVILLE HIGH

All elementary teachers of the Circleville schools will have a reading workshop Wednesday and Thursday. Miss Dorothy C. Dohoney, reading consultant, will spend two full days in the city schools.

Miss Dohoney will be at Walnut Street School Wednesday from 9 a. m. to 10:30 a. m. and from 10:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. at the Corwin building. Both schools will be dismissed at 1:30 p. m. so that the teacher may attend a conference in the Corwin building.

She will visit the Franklin Street School Thursday from 9:30 a. m. to 10:30 a. m., the Atwater School from 10:30 a. m. to 12 noon, and the High Street School from 1 p. m. to 2:15 p. m.

These three schools will be dismissed at 2:15 p. m. while the teachers are in conference at High Street building.

In each building Miss Dohoney will answer questions, discuss fully the reading skills and reading techniques and help with individual problems. Reading is a basic subject to all subjects in the curriculum and is rating major attention in the Circleville City Schools this year.

The Circleville Hi-Y Club held a dance in the High School social rooms Friday evening to the music by Dana Meyers and his "Rythmairs" from Ashville, Ohio. The sponsor of the club and dance was Fred Goeglein.

Once again the speech classes of CHS are in the news. Mrs. Catherine Pruden, speech teacher, furnished the program for the PTA this week. The program consisted of a one-act play written by Thornton Wilder, and entitled, "The Happy Journey to Trenton and Camden", an original oratory by Judy Smith, an entertaining speech by Margie Magill, and a pantomime by Bob Lamb.

Senior SOS members are having a banquet for their mothers May 5 at 6:30 p. m. The Home Economics Department is preparing the dinner, which will consist of an appetizer, chicken, asparagus, potatoes, beverage and dessert. The colors chosen for this occasion are white and green.

Program for the evening will be a candlelight service during which the new officers will be installed. The club gives four awards to the four outstanding girls in the group.

There will also be other features on the program. As in the past the girls will present each mother with a small gift.

L. M. Butch Co. extends sincere congratulations to each senior girl on her approaching graduation.

From April 12 to April 26, the girls are invited to come in and select a gift teaspoon in their favorite sterling pattern.

Honeymoon Short For Acting Pair

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — It was a short honeymoon for actress-dancer Carol Haney and actor Larry Blyden.

The couple, married yesterday in the chapel of the new Frontier Hotel, leave today, in different directions.

Miss Haney returns to "The Pajama Game" on Broadway, the show in which she is a featured dancer. Blyden returns to San Francisco where he is appearing in "O, Men, O, Women."

Rabbi Arthur Lebowitz performed the ceremony and actor Lloyd Bridges was best man. Bridges' wife, Dorothy, acted as matron of honor.

World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The West thinks it has troubles. But the 29 Asian and African nations opening a conference today at Bandung, Indonesia, have troubles, too.

They sent more than 600 delegates there, representing over one billion people who include Christians, Buddhists, Moslems, Hindus, Communists, anti Communists and nations such as India called neutralists.

What they have in common is that they are from Asia, Africa, and the Middle East and that most of them are colored. Russia and the other big white powers — the United States and the West Europeans — were not invited.

While the United States and its Western Allies have differences, they are at least united in common defense against communism. The delegates at Bandung do not have even that kind of unity.

India's Prime Minister Nehru may have to struggle with Red China's Premier Chou En-lai, if not for leadership of the conference then at least to chart its direction or to prevent it from following Chou out the window.

Nehru, great critic of the West and soft-talker about China, is a tough anti Communist at home. Chou will probably be asked by some delegates to promise not to start war by attacking Formosa or the Matsu and Quemoy Islands.

That will put him on the spot since Red China poses as a peace lover but has vowed to take the islands. At the same time Nehru and Chou have blasted the anti-Communist Southeast Asia defense organization.

That group's members — the United States, Britain, France, New Zealand, Pakistan, the Philippines, Thailand and Australia — banded together for mutual defense against attack by the Communists of China or North Viet Nam.

Of the eight members only Pakistan, the Philippines and Thailand were invited to Bandung. If the organization is assailed at the conference they can be expected to team up in its defense, led by the Philippines' Carlos Romulo.

At the conference Egypt's Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser would like support for the Arabs' dispute with Israel, which isn't there. But the Arab nations at Bandung —Egypt, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Iraq — don't see eye-to-eye on everything, either.

The first three have criticized Iraq for signing a defense treaty with Trukey which, although present at Bandung, is allied with the West and is not a member of the Arab League.

Some of the Africans and Asians at Bandung — with plenty of reason to remember the long history of West European colonialism, imperialism, exploitation and practice of white supremacy at their expense — will probably tee off on the West.

But at the same time the non-Communists among them, if they make any pretense at reality, must regard Red China as a new threat to their independence.

Red China will try to spread the gospel of goodwill to its neighbors although those neighbors, at the moment they are critical of the West, know the West is the biggest deterrent to Communist China's inclination to gobble them up.

Nevertheless, the West may suffer some damage at this conference if, despite the divergent views of the delegates, the result is increased suspicion and hostility to the West.

STRIKE PAINS

IF IT WERE merely a matter of crippling industrial strikes lasting for the duration of union funds available for work stoppage, enduring them would be less painful. United Auto Workers approved an increase in dues to raise a strike fund of $25 million. At the rate of $10 a week for each striker, this fund would last only seven weeks should the 345,000 General Motors employes strike for the guaranteed annual wage.

The CIO union might obtain additional funds from other unions. Their resources are supplemented by unemployment insurance funds and by merchant credit in predominantly union communities. But striking, however union leaders try to disguise the fact, is a great burden on the strikers who lose weeks or months of full pay and wind up with accumulated debts that set them back for years.

Struck plants also suffer from loss of profits and defection of customers to competitors. Both industries and workers are so heavily penalized by strikes that public forbearance of this threat to the economy is wearing thinner.

GO SOUTH, YOUNG MAN

THOSE WHO would question the importance of private investment as a spur to foreign economic development need look no farther than the significant part played by international capital in the early development of the United States. As late as World War I foreign investors had nearly four billion dollars more capital invested in the United States than Americans had invested in foreign countries.

The countries of Central and South America represent an enormous untapped market for consumer and durable goods financed by American business which would have the added incentive of developing new sources of raw materials in that area. Latin American countries now realize that capital requirements for financing economic development within their own countries far exceed local financial resources.

But before American investors will unreservedly take the plunge they are looking for guarantees of fair and friendly treatment from those countries.

PICTURE IS BRIGHTER

A GENERAL FEELING of optimism pervades the business world, especially that segment of it engaged in retail trade. Easter shoppers in many areas of the nation were handicapped by unseasonable weather. There is close relationship between weather and buying in many lines of business.

But a survey of 44 of the principal cities of the country discloses merchants in 39 of the 44 cities report Easter business this year was as good as last year or better. The late upsurge in buying should be reflected in volume in coming weeks, they assert.

Department store sales in the big cities have registered a sizable gain since January 1, with no diminution in the upward trend. All indices point to substantial gains in business in the first six months, with the automobile industry far ahead in volume increase over last year.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

Max Lerner, writing about Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr. said:

"...In the years after 1935, hundreds of publications arose which were either directly connected with fascist movements, like Pelley's Silver Shirt paper and the Christian Front 'Social Justice,' or, like more powerful newspapers such as the 'Chicago Tribune,' tended to coincide with the Nazi pattern out of anti-Administration bitterness.

To take the position that only specific issues can be excluded from the mails and that there can be no suspension of the second-class mailing rights as a whole is clearly to deny to the government an indispensable weapon for fighting the enemy and to leave the nation at the enemies' mercy on one of its most valuable fronts.

The long seige of proto-fascist propaganda in the United States, before Pearl Harbor, had left substantial elements of public opinion in a receptive mind for the most vicious anti-democratic and anti-war writing in our recent history."

Lerner, in a word, favored the suspension of second-class mail for Nazi and Fascist newspapers and magazines. But the Nazis never developed a movement in this country as powerful, as effective or as dangerous to the United States as the Communists have. Today there is no evidence of a meaningful Nazi or Fascist movement in the United States, but the Communists continue to disturb this country. On this subject, Lerner says:

"I add one observation evoked by the experience of America with civil liberties in the period after World War II. This was a period of cold war rather than of war itself. The cold war nevertheless produced tensions far out of proportion to the actual strength of the Communist movement inside the United States, with a resulting constriction in the climate of opinion. The focal point shifted from censorship of printed matter to the inquiry into the political opinions of individuals—far beyond what could be justified by any reasonable estimate of the danger of these opinions to American survival.

What was most dangerous to America, on the other hand, was that it stripped itself of some of the strength of the strongest weapon it had in the world-wide struggle with Kremlin power—the image of a free society."

From these quotations, we must assume that, according to Lerner, it was correct to supress 'the image of a free society" when it applied to the Nazi or the Fascist but it is wrong to apply the same rule to the Communists and their allies. It is difficult to follow the logic or the morality of this position. Either 'the image of a free society" is to be preserved at all times, either we are to recognize free access to knowledge at all times or we give the Post Office authority over the minds of our people at all times.

Max Lerner's appraisal of the dangers of Communism in the United States differs radically from that of J. Edgar Hoover who as Director of the FBI, is more reliable an assessor of this conspiracy than any private person.

I have never been able to understand why the so-called liberals make the distinction between Fascism and Communism. In practice both violate human liberty. In

CHAPTER TWENTY

SUSAN DWIGHT engaged to Lofting . . . What did she see in the fellow? Andrus thought. He was pleasant enough and he'd never hurt you with a bad answer, but he was bone lazy.

Andrus forced his attention back to his own situation. He was very little more forward than he had been when he came up here over a week ago. He had been released on a Scotch verdict of not proven, simply because there wasn't enough to hold him on. Mrs. Fenn had said he was with Midnight Mike on the night Roger Pelham was killed —but not exactly when. She might never be able to say. Regina believed in him—or did she, completely? Once or twice that afternoon hadn't there been a flicker of doubt in her? "But who, Jim—who could have driven your car that night? I suppose it was someone who had no car and wanted to get somewhere in a hurry and took a short cut through our grounds. But it does seem strange . . ."

Until the man who had killed Brodsky and almost killed Mrs. Fenn was behind bars he would never be really cleared. Todhunter had tried to persuade him to go back to New York, at which he had merely smiled. He intended to remain here on the spot and pursue his inquiries openly, no matter whose toes he stepped on or how many people he offended. His avowed intention of getting to the bottom of Roger Pelham's death might act as a spur, prod the killer into renewed life, make him betray himself.

Everything else was subservient, including Regina. For the present marrying was on the dark side of the moon. Regina had said nothing, given no slightest indication of how she felt about taking up where they had left off. If his innocence was proved would she still want to marry him? There was certainly no eager mention of it . . . Then he asked himself whether there had ever been any real eagerness in either of them. But all that would have to wait.

Andrus walked into the inn lobby, an immense raftered room scattered with sofas and chairs and with two fireplaces. If he had any doubt of how he stood in the eyes of the Hill it was resolved then. He was disliked and feared. There was a cocktail party going on and the place was crowded. People sipping drinks and laughing and talking; as he made his way through the room toward the east wing he moved in a small oasis of silence. The Hill had no doubt of his guilt, at least where Roger Pelham was concerned.

His room, a big room that took up the whole end of the wing, had three long windows opening directly on the grounds. He made sure that the windows were locked, lowered the venetian blinds, went to the suitcase he had had sent up from New York, opened it and took out his service revolver and a box of cartridges. Having failed to eliminate him by due process of law, the killer might decide to put a summary end to his activities, and it was as well to be prepared. He was slipping bullets into the chamber when there was a knock on the door.

Andrus didn't care who knew he he had a gun, the more the merrier. He called, "Enter," and the door opened and Jude's friend, Dr. Fernandez, walked into the room, accompanied by the head of the Manhattan Homicide squad, Inspector Christopher McKee.

Introductions, handshakes, they all sat down. Andrus was immediately impressed by the tall Scotsman, by his strong face, his quiet manner and his unobtrusive force. It would have been difficult not to be. More than that, he liked him at once; he refused altogether to consider the Inspector's first proposition, which was that he leave Wolf Hill.

McKee continued to survey Andrus pleasantly. He hadn't expected it.

He agreed to turn over anything he discovered to Todhunter, who was to remain on the Hill. Eyeing the gun lying on the bureau, McKee advised against Andrus' carrying it, or even keeping it in his possession. "We're up against a ruthless individual who knows how to twist what's lying around loose to the best advantage. You would be framed with your gun, nicely." But Andrus wouldn't part with the gun. "I'll keep it safe—and I can assure you I won't use it unless I have to."

After that they talked for some time. McKee's questions ranged far and wide. He asked about Regina Pelham's financial position and Andrus' brows rose. He said they'd never discussed the subject, specifically. She had a small income from her father's estate, just about enough to live on, and the house—which was more of a liability than anything else. The Peeping Tom in the Pelham grounds on Sunday night was touched on, it would be interesting to know who he was and why he was there . . . and then there was Mrs. Frederick Pelham and her sending of the snapshot to the Yonkers Messenger.

McKee said, "I don't think Edith Pelham likes you very much, Mr. Andrus, or her husband either." In his opinion the Frederick Pelhams disliked Andrus in his character of prospective bridegroom, simply and solely that, yet it was hard to see as things stood why they were so averse to Regina's remarriage. If Regina were a wealthy woman it would be understandable—Frederick was Regina's only brother and she was very fond of him. But she wasn't a wealthy woman. As for Edith's search of Mrs. Casserly's room it might or might not be germane. According to Todhunter, the nurse was an uneasy woman. But she wasn't, for instance, a petty pilferer whose belongings could be examined by Edith for evidences of theft—"Look, Regina, you think Lulu Casserly's honest, look what I found in her room." No, it was nothing like that.

At the end of half an hour McKee and Fernandez got up. The New York medical examiner was in the corridor and McKee was standing in the doorway when he turned and asked the final question. "You're sure that you were drunk that night, the night before you were to have been married, at that dinner for you here—that you got drunk at the dinner, during the course of it?"

Andrus stared. He said flatly, "I was polluted, I pulled a complete blank, or almost, on that bottle of whiskey."

The Scotsman nodded. "Yes. But I've been wondering whether you were responsible, whether you couldn't have been drugged."

And on that, without further comment or elaboration, McKee went in search of Todhunter.

Drugged! It was a new and astounding thought. Andrus took it in with him to dinner in the dining room.

Why should anyone have drugged him? So that he couldn't turn up in the morning? Incredible. Drugs were too tricky a medium. You couldn't count on any long range effect.

Halfway through his dinner for which he had no appetite, he became aware that he was under observation. A man at a table 15 feet away was watching him. He was a big man, handsome in a lush sort of way. He had thinning dark hair and features that would have been good except for the overlay of fat. Age around 40. Andrus finished his meal and ordered coffee.

The coffee came, but he didn't drink it. The fellow who had been watching him got up, put on a big camel's hair overcoat and went out. Something about his bulk was familiar . . . Andrus had seen him recently in a peculiar circumstance; he signed his check hastily, threw down a bill and got up. But by the time he reached the outside door, his quarry had vanished.

Earlier that evening Susan Dwight found out who had written the letter that had frightened Regina. Barry had come up for the express purpose of taking her to a big party at the Rankins. He said, "You promised and we can't disappoint Muriel and Tom; it's their wedding anniversary—and everything's fine here now with Andrus out from under. Come on, Sue."

But Susan wouldn't. She said she was too tired. "You go and make my apologies. Give the Rankins my love, and say I'll ring them."

news behind the news

By Ray Tucker

WASHINGTON — Secretary John Foster Dulles' petroleum experts are seriously upset over a recent United Nations report which hampers their efforts to obtain new sources of oil in the cold war against the Communists. The attack on American interests by an official agency of the international body might have appeared in Pravda, the Kremlin's official organ.

Issued by a U.N. Economic Committee, headed by a noted European leftist the document charged that American oil firms —Standard, Gulf, etc. — were cheating both the native producers and world consumers of this key product. It said, specifically, that although the oil was extracted on a basis of low native wages and other below-standard costs, the delivery price in Europe and elsewhere was fixed on the higher level of production costs in the United States.

It is the same sort of "imperialistic, commercial and colonial" indictment which Moscow and Peiping regularly level against the United States. It has been picked up and spread by Red propagandists in China, Asia and the Middle East.

OMITTED—The U.N. report neglected many vital facts favorable to Western interests. It took no cognizance of the heavy costs of refining and transporting the oil to market. Nor did it mention the high royalties and taxes which American firms pay to foreign governments.

It omitted entirely any reference to the improved standards of living—wages, schools, sanitation — introduced in backward areas by the so-called "American exploiters." Like so many other surveys by U. N. committees, it gave the U. S. a black eye on the psychological front in the cold war.

Although the State Department has sought to hush-hush the matter lest it sharpen controversies over this question, it is understood that strong protests have been entered against the alleged misrepresentation.

CRUCIAL TIME — The criticism comes at a crucial period in the semi-secret struggle for oil rights throughout the world. It is the Communists' great objective to bar us from access to these new potential sources of supply.

New fields have recently been found or expanded in Southern France, Northern Italy, Sicily, Egypt, Brazil and Bolivia. Besides seeking concessions in these countries, American petroleum and diplomatic representatives ask that domestic laws be revised on terms favorable to foreign investments.

As of today, their statutes require that minerals be developed by a government monopoly, or by a firm 51 per cent controlled by native interests. Provisions affecting taxes, management personnel and withdrawals of earnings prevent American entry.

If the State Department and petroleum companies are successful in these politico-economic moves, the U. S. will gain access to reserves in areas less liable to be cut off by enemy submarines in time of war.

SLOGANS — Moreover, these developments will make these countries less dependent on us or even on Communists for economic aid. Already, Italy has cancelled large orders of Red Poland's coal ecause of oil and natural gas finds.

Inspired by Moscow, the Commies are blocking us at every turn. In Sicily they have posted signs saying, "sicilian oil for Sicilians. . . .Americans, go home!" In appeals to nationalistic sentiment, they have frightened friendly regimes, notably Premier Mario Scelba's in Italy, out of granting us the necessary concessions and statutory revisions.

The Reds have also tried to persuade Middle East Arabs to terminate their contracts with us, or to make another demand for higher and possibly excessive royalties.

And while we fight for oil, the life blood of war, a United Nations committee supplies ammunition to our enemies!

STRIKE PAINS

IF IT WERE merely a matter of crippling industrial strikes lasting for the duration of union funds available for work stoppage, enduring them would be less painful. United Auto Workers approved an increase in dues to raise a strike fund of $25 million. At the rate of $10 a week for each striker, this fund would last only seven weeks should the 345,000 General Motors employes strike for the guaranteed annual wage.

The CIO union might obtain additional funds from other unions. Their resources are supplemented by unemployment insurance funds and by merchant credit in predominantly union communities. But striking, however union leaders try to disguise the fact, is a great burden on the strikers who lose weeks or months of full pay and wind up with accumulated debts that set them back for years.

Struck plants also suffer from loss of profits and defection of customers to competitors. Both industries and workers are so heavily penalized by strikes that public forbearance of this threat to the economy is wearing thinner.

GO SOUTH, YOUNG MAN

THOSE WHO would question the importance of private investment as a spur to foreign economic development need look no farther than the significant part played by international capital in the early development of the United States. As late as World War I foreign investors had nearly four billion dollars more capital invested in the United States than Americans had invested in foreign countries.

The countries of Central and South America represent an enormous untapped market for consumer and durable goods financed by American business which would have the added incentive of developing new sources of raw materials in that area. Latin American countries now realize that capital requirements for financing economic development within their own countries far exceed local financial resources.

But before American investors will unreservedly take the plunge they are looking for guarantees of fair and friendly treatment from those countries.

PICTURE IS BRIGHTER

A GENERAL FEELING of optimism pervades the business world, especially that segment of it engaged in retail trade. Easter shoppers in many areas of the nation were handicapped by unseasonable weather. There is close relationship between weather and buying in many lines of business.

But a survey of 44 of the principal cities of the country discloses merchants in 39 of the 44 cities report Easter business this year was as good as last year or better. The late upsurge in buying should be reflected in volume in coming weeks, they assert.

Department store sales in the big cities have registered a sizable gain since January 1, with no diminution in the upward trend. All indices point to substantial gains in business in the first six months, with the automobile industry far ahead in volume increase over last year.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

Max Lerner, writing about Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr. said:

". . .In the years after 1935, hundreds of publications arose which were either directly connected with fascist movements, like Pelley's Silver Shirt paper and the Christian Front 'Social Justice,' or, like more powerful newspapers such as the 'Chicago Tribune,' tended to coincide with the Nazi pattern out of anti-Administration bitterness.

To take the position that only specific issues can be excluded from the mails and that there can be no suspension of the second-class mailing rights as a whole is clearly to deny to the government an indispensable weapon for fighting the enemy and to leave the nation at the enemies' mercy on one of its most valuable fronts.

The long seige of proto-fascist propaganda in the United States, before Pearl Harbor, had left substantial elements of public opinion in a receptive mind for the most vicious anti-democratic and anti-war writing in our recent history."

Lerner, in a word, favored the suspension of second-class mail for Nazi and Fascist newspapers and magazines. But the Nazis never developed a movement in this country as powerful, as effective or as dangerous to the United States as the Communists have. Today there is no evidence of a meaningful Nazi or Fascist movement in the United States, but the Communists continue to disturb this country. On this subject, Lerner says:

"I add one observation evoked by the experience of America with civil liberties in the period after World War II. This was a period of cold war rather than of war itself. The cold war nevertheless produced tensions far out of proportion to the actual strength of the Communist movement inside the United States, with a resulting constriction in the climate of opinion. The focal point shifted from censorship of printed matter to the inquiry into the political opinions of individuals—far beyond what could be justified by any reasonable estimate of the danger of these opinions to American survival.

What was most dangerous to America, on the other hand, was that it stripped itself of some of the strength of the strongest weapon it had in the world-wide struggle with Kremlin power—the image of a free society."

From these quotations, we must assume that, according to Lerner, it was correct to supress 'the image of a free society" when it applied to the Nazi or the Fascist but it is wrong to apply the same rule to the Communists and their allies. It is difficult to follow the logic or the morality of this position. Either 'the image of a free society" is to be preserved at all times, either we are to recognize free access to knowledge at all times or we give the Post Office authority over the minds of our people at all times.

Max Lerner's appraisal of the dangers of Communism in the United States differs radically from that of J. Edgar Hoover who as Director of the FBI, is more reliable an assessor of this conspiracy than any private person.

I have never been able to understand why the so-called liberals make the distinction between Fascism and Communism. In practice both violate human liberty. In

CHAPTER TWENTY

SUSAN DWIGHT engaged to Lofting . . . What did she see in the fellow? Andrus thought. He was pleasant enough and he'd never hurt you with a bad answer, but he was bone lazy.

Andrus forced his attention back to his own situation. He was very little more forward than he had been when he came up here over a week ago. He had been released on a Scotch verdict of not proven, simply because there wasn't enough to hold him on. Mrs. Fenn had said he was with Midnight Mike on the night Roger Pelham was killed —but not exactly when. She might never be able to say. Regina believed in him—or did she, completely? Once or twice that afternoon hadn't there been a flicker of doubt in her? "But who, Jim—who could have driven your car that night? I suppose it was someone who had no car and wanted to get somewhere in a hurry and took a short cut through our grounds. But it does seem strange . . ."

Until the man who had killed Brodsky and almost killed Mrs. Fenn was behind bars he would never be really cleared. Todhunter had tried to persuade him to go back to New York, at which he had merely smiled. He intended to remain here on the spot and pursue his inquiries openly, no matter whose toes he stepped on or how many people he offended. His avowed intention of getting to the bottom of Roger Pelham's death might act as a spur, prod the killer into renewed life, make him betray himself.

Everything else was subservient, including Regina. For the present marrying was on the dark side of the moon. Regina had said nothing, given no slightest indication of how she felt about taking up where they had left off. If his innocence was proved would she still want to marry him? There was certainly no eager mention of it . . . Then he asked himself whether there had ever been any real eagerness in either of them. But all that would have to wait.

Andrus walked into the inn lobby, an immense raftered room scattered with sofas and chairs and with two fireplaces. If he had any doubt of how he stood in the eyes of the Hill it was resolved then. He was disliked and feared. There was a cocktail party going on and the place was crowded. People sipping drinks and laughing and talking; as he made his way through the room toward the east wing he moved in a small oasis of silence. The Hill had no doubt of his guilt, at least where Roger Pelham was concerned.

His room, a big room that took up the whole end of the wing, had three long windows opening directly on the grounds. He made sure that the windows were locked, lowered the venetian blinds, went to the suitcase he had had sent up from New York, opened it and took out his service revolver and a box of cartridges. Having failed to eliminate him by due process of law, the killer might decide to put a summary end to his activities, and it was as well to be prepared. He was slipping bullets into the chamber when there was a knock on the door.

Andrus didn't care who knew he he had a gun, the more the merrier. He called, "Enter," and the door opened and Jude's friend, Dr. Fernandez, walked into the room, accompanied by the head of the Manhattan Homicide squad, Inspector Christopher McKee.

Introductions, handshakes, they all sat down. Andrus was immediately impressed by the tall Scotsman, by his strong face, his quiet manner and his unobtrusive force. It would have been difficult not to be. More than that, he liked him at once; he refused altogether to consider the Inspector's first proposition, which was that he leave Wolf Hill.

McKee continued to survey Andrus pleasantly. He hadn't expected it.

He agreed to turn over anything he discovered to Todhunter, who was to remain on the Hill. Eyeing the gun lying on the bureau, McKee advised against Andrus' carrying it, or even keeping it in his possession. "We're up against a ruthless individual who knows how to twist what's lying around loose to the best advantage. You would be framed with your gun, nicely." But Andrus wouldn't part with the gun. "I'll keep it safe—and I can assure you I won't use it unless I have to."

After that they talked for some time. McKee's questions ranged far and wide. He asked about Regina Pelham's financial position and Andrus' brows rose. He said they'd never discussed the subject, specifically. She had a small income from her father's estate, just about enough to live on, and the house—which was more of a liability than anything else. The Peeping Tom in the Pelham grounds on Sunday night was touched on, it would be interesting to know who he was and why he was there . . . and then there was Mrs. Frederick Pelham and her sending of the snapshot to the Yonkers Messenger.

McKee said, "I don't think Edith Pelham likes you very much, Mr. Andrus, or her husband either." In his opinion the Frederick Pelhams disliked Andrus in his character of prospective bridegroom, simply and solely that, yet it was hard to see as things stood why they were so averse to Regina's remarriage. If Regina were a wealthy woman it would be understandable—Frederick was Regina's only brother and she was very fond of him. But she wasn't a wealthy woman. As for Edith's search of Mrs. Casserly's room it might or might not be germane. According to Todhunter, the nurse was an uneasy woman. But she wasn't, for instance, a petty pilferer whose belongings could be examined by Edith for evidences of theft—"Look, Regina, you think Lulu Casserly's honest, look what I found in her room." No, it was nothing like that.

At the end of half an hour McKee and Fernandez got up. The New York medical examiner was in the corridor and McKee was standing in the doorway when he turned and asked the final question. "You're sure that you were drunk that night, the night before you were to have been married, at that dinner for you here—that you got drunk at the dinner, during the course of it?"

Andrus stared. He said flatly, "I was polluted, I pulled a complete blank, or almost, on that bottle of whiskey."

The Scotsman nodded. "Yes. But I've been wondering whether you were responsible, whether you couldn't have been drugged."

And on that, without further comment or elaboration, McKee went in search of Todhunter.

Drugged! It was a new and astounding thought. Andrus took it in with him to dinner in the dining room.

Why should anyone have drugged him? So that he couldn't turn up in the morning? Incredible. Drugs were too tricky a medium. You couldn't count on any long range effect.

Suzanne Porter-Arthur Dick Wedding Held At Five Points

Reception Follows In Church Rooms

The Five Points Methodist church was the setting for the recent open church nuptials of Miss Suzanne Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Porter of Mt. Sterling, and Arthur Davis Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dick, also of the Mt. Sterling community.

Baskets of white gladioli and white roses, palms and seven-branch candelabra were linked together by formiosa chains from the altar to the aisle, where single tapers with bows of white ribbon, fern and gladioli marked each pew.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a waltz-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The sweetheart neckline was trimmed in pearls and the long sleeves formed points over her wrists. Crinolines enhanced the bouffant skirt of the princess style gown.

She wore a pearl trimmed juliet cap which held her veil of softest illusion and she carried her Eastern Star Bible, festooned with a lover's knot of hyacinth bells centered with a white orchid. Streamers of ivy entwined with shattered ribbon and silver Trictine bells completed the bouquet. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Laurence Reid, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor, while Miss Dolores Beall of Wheelersburg and Miss Miriam Bach of Pherson were bridesmaids.

The attendants wore ballerina length gowns of crystallette with portrait necklines, long torso bodices and bouffant skirts. Mrs. Reid was gowned in orchid, while the bridesmaids wore mist green.

Mrs. Reid carried a cascade of orchid glamelia tied with mist green ribbon. While the bridesmaids carried French nosegays of orchid camelias, circled with orchid ribbon and lace. Short white gloves completed their costumes.

Bruce and Brenda Reid, nephew and niece of the bride, were ring bearer and flower girl. Bruce was attired in charcoal trousers with a coat of charcoal and grey plaid. Brenda wore a party dress of Chantilly lace, and carried a basket of yellow rose petals. Pink sweetheart rosebuds were entwined in her braids.

John Riddle of Mt. Sterling served as best man. Seating the guests were Robert and William Dick, brothers of the groom, John Alfred Jones of Columbus, a cousin of the bride, and Frank Bowling of Circleville.

The Rev. Fenton Fish of Columbus officiated at the nuptials, which were preceded by a program of wedding music by Mrs. Jean West at the piano. George Rihl, soloist, offered, "I Love You Truly", "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the dining rooms of the church. Hostesses for the event were: Mrs. John R. Downs, of Circleville, Mrs. Robert Redman of Grove City, Miss Glenna Liston of Mt. Sterling, Miss Charlotte Dunn of South Solon, Miss Lois Dunfee of Zanesville and Miss Jeanette Jeffries of Columbus. Miss Margaret Anderson served as registrar.

The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of pink and white carnations and a floral replica of the double wedding rings, flanked by lighted tapers. The punch bowl was encircled with a chain of fern and orchid baby mums.

Mrs. Porter received her guests in a mauve pink taffeta dress with a lace yoke. Her accessories were avacado green and she wore a corsage of green cymbidium orchids accented with the silver trictine used in the bride's bouquet.

Mrs. Dick, mother of the groom, chose a two piece dress in mauve rose crepe. She also wore a corsage of green cymbidium orchids, accented with silver trictine.

Among the guests at the reception, which was attended by 186 relatives and friends, were Mrs. Bertha Porter, paternal grandmother of the bride, SWO Jay R. David, stationed in Kentucky, and R. S. Hedges and family of Athens. Guests were present from the Mt. Sterling community, Columbus, Marietta, Chillicothe, Worthington, Bucyrus, London, West Jefferson, Portsmouth, Wheelersburg and Circleville.

The couple left on a short wedding trip to Zanesville, with the bride traveling in a French Deau blue dress, accented with the orchid corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The new Mrs. Dick is a graduate of Monroe High School and is employed by the Ohio Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction at London. She will reside with her parents for the present.

Mr. Dick, also a graduate of Monroe High School, is stationed at Fort Knox, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Dick, parents of the groom, were hosts to a rehearsal dinner held in Pickaway Arms for 29 guests.

Harry Dicks Are Hosts To Dinner On Wedding Eve

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Dick of Mt. Sterling were hosts to a rehearsal dinner held in Pickaway Arms in honor of Miss Suzanne Porter and their son, Arthur Dick, on the eve of their wedding.

A total of 29 guests were present for the event. The bride's table was centered with flowers in a double wedding ring arrangement flanked by lighted tapers, which were set in a bed of flowers.

Another table was centered with two cupids and tapers in a floral arrangement. A special table for the children was decorated with Easter bunnies and chickens and individual corsages, which were presented to the small guests.

Those present for the event included:

Miss Porter and Pvt. Dick, honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Porter, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Downs, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dick and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Reid and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Riddle, Miss Delores Beall, Wells Smith, Miss Miriam Bach, The Rev. Fenton Fish, Frank Bowling Jr., John Jones Jr., William Rihl, Mrs. Jean West and the hosts.

Ladies Aid Is To Erect Signs

The regular monthly meeting of the East Ringgold Ladies Aid was held in the home of Mrs. Melvin Barr, with 16 members present for the occasion.

Group singing opened the meeting. The Scripture was read from St. Luke by Mrs. Harry Betz. A sick committee reported 30 cards sent, 25 calls made, three potted flowers given and six food packages presented.

A decision was made by the society to buy and erect road signs leading to the church. The society voted to serve a lunch April 21, at the visit of the Red Cross Blood bank.

A short program included readings by Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. John Peters and Mrs. Lawrence Graham. Prayers were offered by Mrs. Betz and Mrs. Graham.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Barr, assisted by her daughters, granddaughter and sister.

Local Home Demonstration Clubs Set Achievement Meet

The Annual Achievement Meeting of Pickaway County Home Demonstration activity will be held April 29, 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. in St. Philip's Episcopal parish hall, 129 W. Mound St.

This will be the concluding cooperative program for the current project year and is on the eve of National Home Demonstration Week.

May 1 to 7 is the time set aside for attention to be centered on the over-all and nation-wide value of Home Demonstration activity through Cooperative Extension in Agriculture and Home Economics through supervision of Land-Grant Colleges.

Mrs. Don Roush of Orient is chairman of the program for the local review of the year's accomplishments. Each of the county groups will cooperate in the presentation, exhibits and fellowship.

The speaker for the program is to be Mrs. Loa Davis Whitfield, Extension Specialist in Food Marketing from Ohio State University, who will give a practical illustrated-demonstrated talk on "Let's Go Shopping."

Mrs. Whitfield, a former Home Demonstration Agent as well as Agent Supervisor, has been a food marketing specialist with the Federal Extension Service, Women's Land Army Supervisor, and consultant to builders of a new Home Economics College in Pakistan.

The afternoon session on April 29 is open to any homemaker.

Profits Found Running Ahead Of Predictions

3 Of 4 Firms Reporting So Far Say 1955 Better Than Last Year's Tally

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Profits this year are running ahead of last year by a margin wider than few but the most optimistic foresaw.

The first 65 corporations to report on earnings after taxes in the first three months of operations show three out of four doing better this year than last.

Combined, their net profits are 21 per cent higher than in the first quarter of 1954.

Partly this is because business is good this year. Partly it's because business this time last year was mediocre to poor for many companies.

Then many companies were running on reduced production schedules. Sales were down and gross profits with them. A sizable number, however, maintained their equilibrium because reduced taxes kept net income from sliding.

This year tax rates are at about the same level as last. The gains this year, therefore, reflect increased sales or trimmed operating costs, or both.

The gain in earnings brings joy to the stockholders, since it holds promise of generous dividend payments ahead.

The big bull market in stocks was built in part on expectation that earnings would be up this year and that dividends, too, might rise.

Professional traders look ahead and are more interested in what is to come than what has happened. The flood of earnings statements now spouting from the accountants' desks is ancient history in the stock market—but a reassuring and gratifying story.

The profit gains aren't uniform by any means. Eighteen of the 65 companies show a drop in earnings. Two firms operated at a loss. A year ago there were five in that plight.

Nor are the first 65 companies a big enough sample to set the pattern for the thousands yet to report. But the 65 are widely scattered through many industries. And they vary just as widely in size.

For many of the companies the first quarter of their fiscal year is December, January and February. For others it's the calendar quarter of January, February and March.

Striking profit gains this year are reported by some of the steel companies and the railroads. In both fields the early months of 1954 were slowdown periods. Steel production and earnings shrank. For some railroads the red ink came out on the accountants' desks.

This year both are doing better than they had expected only a short time ago.

Chemicals are among the profit gainers, reflecting better sales. Building material producers are more prosperious, as befits suppliers for the big building boom. Textile firms look better this year—in many cases because they looked so bad a year ago. Mining companies have better profit reports, aided by increased demand for their products and by higher prices.

Among the food companies to report early, more show declines in profits this year than advances. So do tool makers and distillers.

Banks and finance companies aren't included in the 65 companies of the sample. But most banks have reported earning gains this year, helped by larger funds available for investment and higher returns on securities.

Combined, the 65 companies report profits of $269,230,998. A year ago the same 65 had combined earnings of $222,093,483.

Montgomery Video Theater Battling Problem Of Virus

NEW YORK (AP)—It would be quite understandable if a truck loaded with penicillin backed up today at the studio where actors will be rehearsing for tonight's Robert Montgomery show.

It's not that anyone is ill, they're just cautious. The reason for the apprehension is that the people connected with the show haven't quite recovered yet from the virus that hit Montgomery last week.

Montgomery's virus turned out to be a $12,000 virus. It cost at least that much, maybe more. The cost to assorted nervous systems, however, was even greater because at the last minute the show had to be canceled, after almost two weeks of rehearsal, and a film of an old program had to be substituted.

A quick examination of old kinescopes, and it was decided to repeat a program about the problems of the aged, which was quite apropos since all hands were aging rapidly that Monday.

Joe Bailey, a co-producer, found the film. But two films are required to run simultaneously during a TV film showing in case one breaks. Where do we get the second film?

Somebody remembered they had donated a film copy to a day center up in the Bronx for the aged. But being a day center, it was now closed. Somebody had to find somebody else to unlock the building.

With a second film in hand, came a series of frantic calls to get clearances from the American Federation of Radio Artists, the actors' union, and from the authors. The actors, the authors and the technicians who made the show originally would have to be paid again, at least a portion of their original take. That came to $12,000.

Donner Pass Hit By Major Snow

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A heavy late spring snow storm slowed highway traffic to a crawl last night in the Donner Summit section of U. S. highway 40.

One driver reported it took him six hours to travel six miles. Some busses and many cars, he reported, had skidded off the road.

Hundreds of cars were in the area for the North American skiing championships. The slalom races were run in a near blizzard nearly obscuring the slalom gates.

The snowfall was estimated at more than 10 inches.

GIs Buy Chaplain Another Auto

GLENHAUSEN, Germany (AP)—The Rev. Johannes Haussner, a German Roman Catholic priest, volunteered to conduct services from the U. S. Army's 12th Infantry Regiment when the regular chaplain went on leave.

But on his way to preside at a mass for troops his car skidded on an icy road and was wrecked. The soldiers passed the hat and collected almost $1,000 to buy a new Volkswagen for Father Haussner.

Denmark Offers To Sell Prison

HORSENS, Denmark (AP) — The government put the prison at Bjerre on sale as a possible apartment house.

The advertising notice said it has living quarters large enough for several families and "17 good cells."

VA Information For Veterans

Q — I am taking on-the-job training under the Korean GI Bill. Although I have not completed my training, my employer has increased my pay so that now I am receiving the beginning wages paid to a fully-trained worker. Does that mean my GI allowance will be cut off?

A—Not necessarily. Your GI allowance will not stop, so long as it is established that you still are a trainee in all respects except pay.

Q—Is it possible to collect GI unemployment pay at the same time I am enrolled in school under the Korean GI Bill? Since I am in school, I am not working.

A—No, it is not possible, under the law, to obtain GI unemployment allowances while you are enrolled in training under the Korean GI Bill. Although you may not be working, you are drawing monthly GI training allowances from the Government.

Q—I am entitled to increased disability compensation pay by reason of my dependents. What does VA consider as the effective date of those increased payments?

A—The effective date of increased payments because of dependents is the date on which VA receives evidence establishing entitlement to the extra pay.

Q—A veteran-friend of mine who had been getting a pension somehow failed to send VA his annual income questionnaire. As a result, his pension has been stopped. If he now sends the questionnaire to VA, and if his income is below the legal maximum, will the payments be resumed?

A—If he returns the questionnaire within one year from the date it was originally sent to him, he will receive his pension payments all the way back to the date they were cut off. If he waits longer than one year, the payments will begin as of the date of receipt of the questionnaire or the date a new claim is filed. All this presupposes that the veteran's income is below the legal maximum for a pension.

Civil Service Restores Jobs To Hundreds

CINCINNATI (AP)—The U. S. Civil Service Commission is restoring federal jobs on the average of two every working day to employes who were "wrongfully discharged, demoted or suspended," a commissioner disclosed today.

Commissioner George M. Moore said 1,443 such employes had been ordered restored to government employment since January 1953. He did not break down the figures in separate categories for discharged, demoted and suspended in his speech prepared for the Kentucky Indiana and Ohio chapters of the National Assn. of Postmasters.

Nor did he indicate the reasons these men and women were originally discharged — whether for alleged subversion, security, dishonesty or incompetence.

"In the vast majority of these cases, restoration to employment by action of the commission has meant hundreds of dollars or back pay for each employe so affected," Moore said.

The commission also has called attention to hundreds of other cases where proposed action would have violated federal rules and regulations, he told the postmasters.

Of the 39,000 postmasters in the United States, 461 permanent postmasters have been removed from office since January 1953 because of embezzlement, tampering with the mails, falsification of records and for misconduct and mismanagement, Moore said and insisted:

"None has been removed because of his political beliefs."

Ex-Teacher Held As Counterfeiter

CLEVELAND (AP)—Charged with counterfeiting half dollars and other coins, Edmond S. Hamilton, 29, Mineral Ridge, Ohio, will be arraigned before U. S. Commissioner H. A. Horn this afternoon.

Hamilton, a former high school teacher at Kinsman, Trumbull County, was arrested Friday at the U. S. Gypsum Co. in Warren where he was employment supervisor. He is the son of the Rev. W. S. Hamilton, pastor of Richard Brown Memorial Methodist Church, Youngstown.

the New PACKARD
with Torsion-Level Ride

Smooths the Road ...Levels the Load Automatically

Here's comfort you've dreamed of . . . and a ride to set you dreaming! It's the new Packard Torsion-Level Ride—a new system of suspension eliminating conventional coil and leaf springs to give you comfort unequaled by any car, on any road.

In other cars, twisting forces due to wheel shocks are transmitted to the frame. You submit to the resulting pitch and bounce . . . the car is subjected to wracking of frame and body. But with Packard Torsion-Level Suspension, these same twisting forces are transmitted along the new torsion bar system, and absorbed before they can reach either frame or passengers. And an ingenious power-controlled levelizer automatically compensates for changes in passenger and luggage load.

All this is yours plus the tremendous power of the new "free-breathing" V-8 engine developing 275 horsepower in the Caribbean and 260 in all other models. Plus, too, the smooth response of the new Packard Twin Ultramatic—actually two transmissions in one. All this in a setting of magnificent luxury and beauty. See and drive this one new car in the fine car field. "Ask the Man Who Owns One."

Profits Found Running Ahead Of Predictions

3 Of 4 Firms Reporting So Far Say 1955 Better Than Last Year's Tally

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Profits this year are running ahead of last year by a margin wider than few but the most optimistic foresaw.

The first 65 corporations to report on earnings after taxes in the first three months of operations show three out of four doing better this year than last.

Combined, their net profits are 21 per cent higher than in the first quarter of 1954.

Partly this is because business is good this year. Partly it's because business this time last year was mediocre to poor for many companies.

Then many companies were running on reduced production schedules. Sales were down and gross profits with them. A sizable number, however, maintained their equilibrium because reduced taxes kept net income from sliding.

This year tax rates are at about the same level as last. The gains this year, therefore, reflect increased sales or trimmed operating costs, or both.

The gain in earnings brings joy to the stockholders, since it holds promise of generous dividend payments ahead.

The big bull market in stocks was built in part on expectation that earnings would be up this year and that dividends, too, might rise.

Professional traders look ahead and are more interested in what is to come than what has happened. The flood of earnings statements now spouting from the accountants' desks is ancient history in the stock market—but a reassuring and gratifying story.

The profit gains aren't uniform by any means. Eighteen of the 65 companies show a drop in earnings. Two firms operated at a loss. A year ago there were five in that plight.

Nor are the first 65 companies a big enough sample to set the pattern for the thousands yet to report. But the 65 are widely scattered through many industries. And they vary just as widely in size.

For many of the companies the first quarter of their fiscal year is December, January and February. For others it's the calendar quarter of January, February and March.

Striking profit gains this year are reported by some of the steel companies and the railroads. In both fields the early months of 1954 were slowdown periods. Steel production and earnings shrank. For some railroads the red ink came out on the accountants' desks.

This year both are doing better than they had expected only a short time ago.

Chemicals are among the profit gainers, reflecting better sales. Building material producers are more prosperious, as befits suppliers for the big building boom. Textile firms look better this year—in many cases because they looked so bad a year ago. Mining companies have better profit reports, aided by increased demand for their products and by higher prices.

Among the food companies to report early, more show declines in profits this year than advances. So do tool makers and distillers.

Banks and finance companies aren't included in the 65 companies of the sample. But most banks have reported earning gains this year, helped by larger funds available for investment and higher returns on securities.

Combined, the 65 companies report profits of $269,230,998. A year ago the same 65 had combined earnings of $222,093,483.

Montgomery Video Theater Battling Problem Of Virus

NEW YORK (AP)—It would be quite understandable if a truck loaded with penicillin backed up today at the studio where actors will be rehearsing for tonight's Robert Montgomery show.

It's not that anyone is ill, they're just cautious. The reason for the apprehension is that the people connected with the show haven't quite recovered yet from the virus that hit Montgomery last week.

Montgomery's virus turned out to be a $12,000 virus. It cost at least that much, maybe more. The cost to assorted nervous systems, however, was even greater because at the last minute the show had to be canceled, after almost two weeks of rehearsal, and a film of an old program had to be substituted.

A quick examination of old kinescopes, and it was decided to repeat a program about the problems of the aged, which was quite apropos since all hands were aging rapidly that Monday.

Joe Bailey, a co-producer, found the film. But two films are required to run simultaneously during a TV film showing in case one breaks. Where do we get the second film?

Somebody remembered they had donated a film copy to a day center up in the Bronx for the aged. But being a day center, it was now closed. Somebody had to find somebody else to unlock the building.

With a second film in hand, came a series of frantic calls to get clearances from the American Federation of Radio Artists, the actors' union, and from the authors. The actors, the authors and the technicians who made the show originally would have to be paid again, at least a portion of their original take. That came to $12,000.

Donner Pass Hit By Major Snow

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A heavy late spring snow storm slowed highway traffic to a crawl last night in the Donner Summit section of U. S. highway 40.

One driver reported it took him six hours to travel six miles. Some busses and many cars, he reported, had skidded off the road.

Hundreds of cars were in the area for the North American skiing championships. The slalom races were run in a near blizzard nearly obscuring the slalom gates.

The snowfall was estimated at more than 10 inches.

GIs Buy Chaplain Another Auto

GLENHAUSEN, Germany (AP)—The Rev. Johannes Haussner, a German Roman Catholic priest, volunteered to conduct services from the U. S. Army's 12th Infantry Regiment when the regular chaplain went on leave.

But on his way to preside at a mass for troops his car skidded on an icy road and was wrecked. The soldiers passed the hat and collected almost $1,000 to buy a new Volkswagen for Father Haussner.

Denmark Offers To Sell Prison

HORSENS, Denmark (AP) — The government put the prison at Bjerre on sale as a possible apartment house.

The advertising notice said it has living quarters large enough for several families and "17 good cells."

VA Information For Veterans

Q — I am taking on-the-job training under the Korean GI Bill. Although I have not completed my training, my employer has increased my pay so that now I am receiving the beginning wages paid to a fully-trained worker. Does that mean my GI allowance will be cut off?

A—Not necessarily. Your GI allowance will not stop, so long as it is established that you still are a trainee in all respects except pay.

Q—Is it possible to collect GI unemployment pay at the same time I am enrolled in school under the Korean GI Bill? Since I am in school, I am not working.

A—No, it is not possible, under the law, to obtain GI unemployment allowances while you are enrolled in training under the Korean GI Bill. Although you may not be working, you are drawing monthly GI training allowances from the Government.

Q—I am entitled to increased disability compensation pay by reason of my dependents. What does VA consider as the effective date of those increased payments?

A—The effective date of increased payments because of dependents is the date on which VA receives evidence establishing entitlement to the extra pay.

Q—A veteran-friend of mine who had been getting a pension somehow failed to send VA his annual income questionnaire. As a result, his pension has been stopped. If he now sends the questionnaire to VA, and if his income is below the legal maximum, will the payments be resumed?

Hal Boyle Says:

Nasser Is Bent On Reform

CAIRO (AP)—It is one thing to run a revolution. It is quite another to build up a nation after you have won a revolution.

Lt. Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, the 37-year-old strong man of Egypt, spent 10 years plotting the army's overthrow of King Farouk. That was accomplished nearly three years ago. Nasser now seems quietly determined to devote the rest of his life to carrying out a reform program that will cure his backward country of its ancient ills.

He told of his hopes the other day in a rare interview granted to a group of visiting American newsmen. Coming into the anteroom of his headquarters, you had the feeling the revolution had just been pulled off a few moments before.

It was crowded with milling army officers and businessmen, all anxious to reach the leader's ear. Armed guards lounged by the windows, carefully scrutinized each visitor who entered.

Prime Minister Nasser, 6-feet and handsome, greeted the news men pleasantly, answered each question slowly and thoughtfully. He spoke in perfect English.

Nasser, who proved himself a master plotter in his seizure of power, spoke many times bitterly of "the landlords" whom he holds responsible for Egypt's poverty and past corruption. Millions of acres of land have been redistributed to peasants under his regime.

"No man now can control more than 300 acres," he said.

His problems range from providing fertilizer to small farmers to the building of giant irrigation and industrial projects. But Nasser emphasized the new regime's attack on illiteracy. Less than one out of four of Egypt's teeming 22 millions now can read or write.

"We plan to build 4,000 new schools in the next 10 years," he said. "Last year we completed 368, more than had ever been built in so short a time before."

He indicated he felt free elections were meaningless until the voters were educated enough to vote for their own best interests.

The impression gained by his listeners was that neither Nasser nor his revolutionary council of young army officers intends to step down from power until the reform program has modernized Egypt. Of this task Nasser has written: "It is not in the twinkling of an eye that one is able to set right the waste of so many centuries."

Nasser, a quiet, self-controlled dynamo, never raised his voice. It is his philosophy: "We are strong when we remain calm."

Even when one newsman brashly questioned whether any of Nasser's own relatives had benefitted from the land redistribution program, the prime minister, instead of bristling, merely looked at him for a moment, then said quietly, "No."

Nasser said he saw no solution to the tense situation with Israel, because of the pressure from hundreds of thousands of Arabs dispossessed there.

"We cannot control these refugees—they want to return to their homeland," he said. "On the frontier we are afraid of the Israelis and they are afraid of us."

At the close of the interview Nasser presented each visitor with an autographed portrait.

Some observers in Cairo see Nasser as a young idealist trying to carry out a socialistic program that will collapse of its own weight.

"Already the people are beginning to ask, 'The revolution was fine—but now what's in it for me?' " one said.

Others feel that Nasser has grown in stature with his job, and that through his hold on the loyalty of the young nationalistic officers he can sit in the saddle of power for a long time to come.

All agree that Nasser, the postal clerk's son who threw out a king, has been personally incorruptible and that he has made progress in improving his country. They also agree that Nasser has stubborn dreams of a larger political role for Egypt in Africa, the Middle East — and the world.

Texans Shell Out For Cancer, Salk

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Folks around here shelled out $22,251.29 yesterday to fight cancer — but they didn't forget Dr. Jonas Salk, who developed the polio vaccine.

They plan to send the University of Pittsburgh researcher a new car and a plow.

A "telethon" by radio and TV was held 6½ hours to raise cancer funds. Among many items donated was a new Oldsmobile. A listener, Jim Pearson, suggested the car to Salk as an appreciation gesture.

KGNC and KGNC-TV announcers asked the public's reaction. Viewers and listeners said they liked the idea.

Then a farm equipment company donated a plow to Salk. However, it was learned from Pittsburgh that he does not have a farm.

theory both are a rejection of the American concept of the rights of the individual to freedom of choice, to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Both elevate the authority of the state and degrade the individual to a thing controlled by the state. Both hated the United States and the Soviet Universal State is conducting a world-wide war against this country now.

It would seem to be more consistent and more fitting for a liberal, such as Max Lerner proclaims himself to be, to oppose Marxism as vehemently as he opposed Fascism. On the other hand, one would have expected him to keep the mails open to all ideas, including those which he abhors. Any other view seems to me to violate, to obliterate "the image of a free society.'

Many opponents of Hitler and the Nazi were prepared to risk the institutions that guard our liberties in the vehemence of their opposition. They failed to realize that they were inaugurating an era of conformity by pressure of majority opinion. Now the precedents they set are being turned upon them. The current practice of the Post Office to decide what Americans should know is an outcome of their activities.

new safe All-in-One capsule discovery for

EASY REDUCING

Science now helps you take off your fat while you eat the foods you choose

Do you like sweets, candy, cake, butter, gravy potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but NOW, right NOW, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why...

Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping give the feeling of a full, contented stomach. In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

fat goes fast

You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear the first month. No hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow slim, more youthful looking, more active and enjoy better health.

We certify that ALL-IN-ONE CAPSULES are entirely safe for human consumption

"We plan to build 4,000 new schools in the next 10 years," he said. "Last year we completed 368, more than had ever been built in so short a time before."

He indicated he felt free elections were meaningless until the voters were educated enough to vote for their own best interests.

The impression gained by his listeners was that neither Nasser nor his revolutionary council of young army officers intends to step down from power until the reform program has modernized Egypt. Of this task Nasser has written: "It is not in the twinkling of an eye that one is able to set right the waste of so many centuries."

Nasser, a quiet, self-controlled dynamo, never raised his voice. It is his philosophy: "We are strong when we remain calm."

Even when one newsman brashly questioned whether any of Nasser's own relatives had benefitted from the land redistribution program, the prime minister, instead of bristling, merely looked at him for a moment, then said quietly, "No."

Nasser said he saw no solution to the tense situation with Israel, because of the pressure from hundreds of thousands of Arabs dispossessed there.

"We cannot control these refugees—they want to return to their homeland," he said. "On the frontier we are afraid of the Israelis and they are afraid of us."

At the close of the interview Nasser presented each visitor with an autographed portrait.

Some observers in Cairo see Nasser as a young idealist trying to carry out a socialistic program that will collapse of its own weight.

"Already the people are beginning to ask, 'The revolution was fine—but now what's in it for me?' " one said.

Others feel that Nasser has grown in stature with his job, and that through his hold on the loyalty of the young nationalistic officers he can sit in the saddle of power for a long time to come.

All agree that Nasser, the postal clerk's son who threw out a king, has been personally incorruptible and that he has made progress in improving his country. They also agree that Nasser has stubborn dreams of a larger political role for Egypt in Africa, the Middle East — and the world.

Texans Shell Out For Cancer, Salk

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Folks around here shelled out $22,251.29 yesterday to fight cancer — but they didn't forget Dr. Jonas Salk, who developed the polio vaccine.

They plan to send the University of Pittsburgh researcher a new car and a plow.

A "telethon" by radio and TV was held 6½ hours to raise cancer funds. Among many items donated was a new Oldsmobile. A listener, Jim Pearson, suggested the car to Salk as an appreciation gesture.

KGNC and KGNC-TV announcers asked the public's reaction. Viewers and listeners said they liked the idea.

Then a farm equipment company donated a plow to Salk. However, it was learned from Pittsburgh that he does not have a farm.

theory both are a rejection of the American concept of the rights of the individual to freedom of choice, to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Both elevate the authority of the state and degrade the individual to a thing controlled by the state. Both hated the United States and the Soviet Universal State is conducting a world-wide war against this country now.

It would seem to be more consistent and more fitting for a liberal, such as Max Lerner proclaims himself to be, to oppose Marxism as vehemently as he opposed Fascism. On the other hand, one would have expected him to keep the mails open to all ideas, including those which he abhors. Any other view seems to me to violate, to obliterate "the image of a free society.'

Many opponents of Hitler and the Nazi were prepared to risk the institutions that guard our liberties in the vehemence of their opposition. They failed to realize that they were inaugurating an era of conformity by pressure of majority opinion. Now the precedents they set are being turned upon them. The current practice of the Post Office to decide what Americans should know is an outcome of their activities.

new safe All-in-One capsule discovery for EASY REDUCING
Science now helps you take off your fat while you eat the foods you choose
Do you like sweets, candy, cake, butter, gravy potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but NOW, right NOW, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why . . .
Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping give the feeling of a full, contented stomach. In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.
fat goes fast
You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear the first month. No hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow slim, more youthful looking, more active and enjoy better health.

We certify that ALL-IN-ONE CAPSULES are entirely safe for human consumption

Zully Hopes His Ring Luck To Change

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the week Orlando Zulueta hopes his luck turns. The 26-year-old Cuban takes on lightweight champion Jimmy Carter in a non-title 10 in Washington Wednesday night and if he upsets the 135-pound boss he might get a shot at the title.

There were a few years when the fast jabbing Zully was either the No. 1 contender or high up in the division and he never got close to a chance at the champ.

Now, after three straight losses and one draw, he's meeting the lightweight king. Two of the defeats, to Kid Howard and Kenny Lane, were highly controversial but they read the same as the other losses in the record books.

There'll be a lot of action on Friday night when 19-year-old Willie Pastrano faces Willie Troy of Washington in a 10-rounder in the Chicago Stadium. Win or lose, the hard-working Troy makes a lively fight. Pastrano made good March 23 when he whipped Al Andrews in the same arena.

Tonight's fights feature middleweights and welterweights, boxing's two busiest divisions. Salt Lake City's Milo Savage, another crowd-pleasing 160-pounder, meets Bobby Boyd of Chicago in a 10 in New York's St. Nicholas Arena. In the rival show in Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena, welters Johnny Busso of New York and Gene Poirer of Niagara Falls, N. Y., collide in the top 10.

CHS Tigers Drop Twin Bill To Athens' Nine On Saturday

"Comedy of Errors" might be the title of a play but it was a good description of the play of Circleville High School's baseball team as they dropped a doubleheader Saturday to Athens, 4-2 and 3-1.

In the first game, the Tigers came up with three miscues—five in the nightcap. Of the seven runs Athens scored in both contests only two were earned —and they came in the opening contest.

Jim McConnell gave up seven hits in the opening game while walking five. Athens grabbed a 2-0 lead but CHS tied it up; the winners then put two singles together for another run and added an unearned one in the fifth.

In the second contest, Athens took a 1-0 lead on a triple and a bad throw. Again CHS tied it up but Athens went ahead on another bad throw. Two more errors gave the winners their final tally.

THE TIGERS travel to Washington C. H. Tuesday for a South Central Ohio League tilt. This will be CHS's only game during the week.

Maybe Ted Left His Bats In Boston

Sox Leading League In Both Standings And Team Slugging

The Associated Press

Ted Williams was still some 2,000 miles away from Fenway Park today but could it be that the Boston Red Sox have been using the power-laden bats he left behind?

The end of the first week of the infant baseball season finds the Red Sox not only leading the American League with five victories in six games but they also are on top with an astonishing .330 team batting average and 11 home runs.

The Red Sox yesterday pounded eight Baltimore pitchers for 30 hits, sweeping both ends of a doubleheader 14-5 and 12-9 to leap past Cleveland and New York and grab a full-game lead on the field.

Faye Throneberry, 23-year-old ex-GI filling in for Williams in left field, has done the most toward easing the big guy's absence. The Memphis, Tenn., sophomore, clubbing at a torrid .400, is tied for the league lead with 12 runs batted in. His 10 hits include four doubles and three home runs. He rapped four hits yesterday including a double and home run, drove in four and scored six times.

Catcher Sammy White, another .400 hitter so far, drove home seven runs with five hits including a double and home run. Jackie Jensen, batting .455, knocked in four runs with six hits including a double, triple and homer. Ted Lepcio collected four hits to boost his average to .348 and Billy Goodman is hitting .364.

Boston shared Sunday's spotlight with the Brooklyn Dodgers who continued their unbeaten ways with a sweep of a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 10-3 and 3-2.

Philadelphia's Phillies stunned the Giants with a pair of 4-2 victories to drop New York into a sixth place tie with Cincinnati.

A 10-run first inning started St. Louis off to a 14-1 runaway over Chicago after the Cubs had nipped the Cards in the opener 6-5 with two runs in the ninth. Cincinnati also pulled out a ninth inning 6-5 victory to gain a split with Milwaukee after the Braves had run off with the opener 10-1. It was the Reds' first victory after five straight defeats.

Cleveland and Chicago split a doubleheader, the Indians winnng 4-2 behind Bob Lemon's five-hitter after southpaw Jack Harshman had pitched the White Sox to a 3-1 triumph in the opener. Johnny Schmitz and Spec Shea combined to pitch Washington to a 7-3 victory over their former New York Yankee teammates as Mickey Vernon and Roy Sievers hammered homers against Eddie Lopat.

Young Al Kaline hammered three home runs, two of them in the sixth inning to tie a major league record, as Detroit romped to a 16-0 rout of Kansas City. Steve Gromek yielded seven hits for his second victory, both against the Athletics.

The 20-year-old Kaline also singled to drive in six runs giving him 12 for the season. He leads both leagues with a .560 batting average on 14 hits in 25 times at bat. Teammate Harvey Kuenn also collected four hits, three doubles and a single.

Staley Wins Cincinnati's First Game

ST. LOUIS (AP)—To Gerry Staley, with the clutch help of Ted Kluszewski, belongs the first Cincinnati Redleg victory of the season.

Staley went the route as the Redlegs topped the Milwaukee Braves, 6-5, yesterday in Crosley Field. The Braves crushed the Reds, 10-1, in the opener for the fifth Cincinnati setback.

The 31 - year - old righthander gave up 11 hits and was often in trouble. But he pitched himself right out of it. In the second inning, he loaded the bases on a walk, a double and a walk with no outs. But he managed to end that frame without allowing a run. Bobby Thomson was forced at the plate and Del Crandall hit into the first of three Cincinnati double plays.

After Hank Aaron homered to tie the score, 5-5, in the seventh, Staley still distributed hits but got to stop any further damage.

But Staley needed Klu's help to wrap up the contest. With two out and two on in the ninth, Klu hit a single to center to score Johnny Temple with the tie-breaking run for the victory-starved Reds.

It was Klu, too, who set off a five-run uprising in the fourth. He opened the frame with a homer. Ed Bailey and Wally Post also hit for the circuit. It was the second time in two days the Reds had clubbed three roundtrippers in one inning. However, the Braves outhit the Reds in the nightcap, 11-9.

Toledo, St. Paul Tied For AA Lead

ST. PAUL (AP)—St. Paul swept a Sunday doubleheader from Indianapolis by identical 8-3 scores to move into a tie with the Toledo Sox for first place in the American Association.

Toledo, after beating Denver's Bears three times in a row, suffered its first loss of the season in the opener of a twin bill with Omaha, 4-1. The Sox rallied to take the nightcap, 6-4.

Denver posted its first victory of the campaign in the opener of a doubleheader at Charleston, 8-0. However, the Bears dropped the second tilt, 6-4, to remain in the league cellar, three games back of Toledo and St. Paul.

Dick Gernert's grand slam homer gave Louisville an 8-5 second-game victory and a split with Minneapolis. The Millers took the opener, 6-4.

Social Outcast After Third Stake

LINCOLN, R. I. (AP)—Social Outcast, who has taken the place of Native Dancer as the No. 1 horse in Alfred G. Vanderbilt's stable, goes after his third rich stakes victory of the year today in the $50,000 Lincoln Special.

The 5-year-old gelded son of Shut Out-Pansy, who won the McLennan Handicap at Hialeah Park and edged Fisherman in the recent $75,000 John B. Campbell Memorial at Bowie, picks up top weight of 126 pounds for Lincoln Downs' test.

Zully Hopes His Ring Luck To Change

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the week Orlando Zulueta hopes his luck turns. The 26-year-old Cuban takes on lightweight champion Jimmy Carter in a non-title 10 in Washington Wednesday night and if he upsets the 135-pound boss he might get a shot at the title.

There were a few years when the fast jabbing Zully was either the No. 1 contender or high up in the division and he never got close to a chance at the champ.

Now, after three straight losses and one draw, he's meeting the lightweight king. Two of the defeats, to Kid Howard and Kenny Lane, were highly controversial but they read the same as the other losses in the record books.

There'll be a lot of action on Friday night when 19-year-old Willie Pastrano faces Willie Troy of Washington in a 10-rounder in the Chicago Stadium. Win or lose, the hard-working Troy makes a lively fight. Pastrano made good March 23 when he whipped Al Andrews in the same arena.

Tonight's fights feature middleweights and welterweights, boxing's two busiest divisions. Salt Lake City's Milo Savage, another crowd-pleasing 160-pounder, meets Bobby Boyd of Chicago in a 10 in New York's St. Nicholas Arena. In the rival show in Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena, welters Johnny Busso of New York and Gene Poirer of Niagara Falls, N. Y., collide in the top 10.

Maybe Ted Left His Bats In Boston

Sox Leading League In Both Standings And Team Slugging

The Associated Press

Ted Williams was still some 2,000 miles away from Fenway Park today but could it be that the Boston Red Sox have been using the power-laden bats he left behind?

The end of the first week of the infant baseball season finds the Red Sox not only leading the American League with five victories in six games but they also are on top with an astonishing .330 team batting average and 11 home runs.

The Red Sox yesterday pounded eight Baltimore pitchers for 30 hits, sweeping both ends of a doubleheader 14-5 and 12-9 to leap past Cleveland and New York and grab a full-game lead on the field.

Faye Throneberry, 23-year-old ex-GI filling in for Williams in left field, has done the most toward easing the big guy's absence. The Memphis, Tenn., sophomore, clubbing at a torrid .400, is tied for the league lead with 12 runs batted in. His 10 hits include four doubles and three home runs. He rapped four hits yesterday including a double and home run, drove in four and scored six times.

Catcher Sammy White, another .400 hitter so far, drove home seven runs with five hits including a double and home run. Jackie Jensen, batting .455, knocked in four runs with six hits including a double, triple and homer. Ted Lepcio collected four hits to boost his average to .348 and Billy Goodman is hitting .364.

Boston shared Sunday's spotlight with the Brooklyn Dodgers who continued their unbeaten ways with a sweep of a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 10-3 and 3-2.

Philadelphia's Phillies stunned the Giants with a pair of 4-2 victories to drop New York into a sixth place tie with Cincinnati.

A 10-run first inning started St. Louis off to a 14-1 runaway over Chicago after the Cubs had nipped the Cards in the opener 6-5 with two runs in the ninth. Cincinnati also pulled out a ninth inning 6-5 victory to gain a split with Milwaukee after the Braves had run off with the opener 10-1. It was the Reds' first victory after five straight defeats.

Cleveland and Chicago split a doubleheader, the Indians winnng 4-2 behind Bob Lemon's five-hitter after southpaw Jack Harshman had pitched the White Sox to a 3-1 triumph in the opener. Johnny Schmitz and Spec Shea combined to pitch Washington to a 7-3 victory over their former New York Yankee teammates as Mickey Vernon and Roy Sievers hammered homers against Eddie Lopat.

Young Al Kaline hammered three home runs, two of them in the sixth inning to tie a major league record, as Detroit romped to a 16-0 rout of Kansas City. Steve Gromek yielded seven hits for his second victory, both against the Athletics.

The 20-year-old Kaline also singled to drive in six runs giving him 12 for the season. He leads both leagues with a .560 batting average on 14 hits in 25 times at bat. Teammate Harvey Kuenn also collected four hits, three doubles and a single.

CHS Tigers Drop Twin Bill To Athens' Nine On Saturday

"Comedy of Errors" might be the title of a play but it was a good description of the play of Circleville High School's baseball team as they dropped a doubleheader Saturday to Athens, 4-2 and 3-1.

In the first game, the Tigers came up with three miscues—five in the nightcap. Of the seven runs Athens scored in both contests only two were earned—and they came in the opening contest.

Jim McConnell gave up seven hits in the opening game while walking five. Athens grabbed a 2-0 lead but CHS tied it up; the winners then put two singles together for another run and added an unearned one in the fifth.

In the second contest, Athens took a 1-0 lead on a triple and a bad throw. Again CHS tied it up but Athens went ahead on another bad throw. Two more errors gave the winners their final tally.

THE TIGERS travel to Washington C. H. Tuesday for a South Central Ohio League tilt. This will be CHS's only game during the week.

BATTING
Al Kaline, Detroit Tigers—Hammered three home runs, two of them in the sixth inning to tie a major league record, and a single to drive in six runs as the Tigers trounced the Kansas City Athletics, 16-0.

PITCHING
Murray Dickson, Philadelphia Phillies—Limited New York to two singles as the Phillies defeated the Giants, 4-2, in the second game of a doubleheader.

Toledo, St. Paul Tied For AA Lead

ST. PAUL (AP)—St. Paul swept a Sunday doubleheader from Indianapolis by identical 8-3 scores to move into a tie with the Toledo Sox for first place in the American Association.

Toledo, after beating Denver's Bears three times in a row, suffered its first loss of the season in the opener of a twin bill with Omaha, 4-1. The Sox rallied to take the nightcap, 6-4.

Denver posted its first victory of the campaign in the opener of a doubleheader at Charleston, 8-0. However, the Bears dropped the second tilt, 6-4, to remain in the league cellar, three games back of Toledo and St. Paul.

Dick Gernert's grand slam homer gave Louisville an 8-5 second-game victory and a split with Minneapolis. The Millers took the opener, 6-4.

Social Outcast After Third Stake

LINCOLN, R. I. (AP)—Social Outcast, who has taken the place of Native Dancer as the No. 1 horse in Alfred G. Vanderbilt's stable, goes after his third rich stakes victory of the year today in the $50,000 Lincoln Special.

The 5-year-old gelded son of Shut Out-Pansy, who won the McLennan Handicap at Hialeah Park and edged Fisherman in the recent $75,000 John B. Campbell Memorial at Bowie, picks up top weight of 126 pounds for Lincoln Downs' test.

Staley Wins Cincinnati's First Game

ST. LOUIS (AP)—To Gerry Staley, with the clutch help of Ted Kluszewski, belongs the first Cincinnati Redleg victory of the season.

Staley went the route as the Redlegs topped the Milwaukee Braves, 6-5, yesterday in Crosley Field. The Braves crushed the Reds, 10-1, in the opener for the fifth Cincinnati setback.

The 31 - year - old righthander gave up 11 hits and was often in trouble. But he pitched himself right out of it. In the second inning, he loaded the bases on a walk, a double and a walk with no outs. But he managed to end that frame without allowing a run. Bobby Thomson was forced at the plate and Del Crandall hit into the first of three Cincinnati double plays.

After Hank Aaron homered to tie the score, 5-5, in the seventh, Staley still distributed hits but got to stop any further damage.

But Staley needed Klu's help to wrap up the contest. With two out and two on in the ninth, Klu hit a single to center to score Johnny Temple with the tie-breaking run for the victory-starved Reds.

It was Klu, too, who set off a five-run uprising in the fourth. He opened the frame with a homer. Ed Bailey and Wally Post also hit for the circuit. It was the second time in two days the Reds had clubbed three roundtrippers in one inning. However, the Braves outhit the Reds in the nightcap, 11-9.

Circleville DeMolay Cage Squad Wins State Title For 2nd Time

Circleville DeMolay's basketball squad has again taken the Class A trophy in the DeMolay State Tournament.

They had to down four teams Friday and Saturday at Canton to win. The Circleville group won the 1954 tourney held in Troy and were also winners this past season in the Pickaway County Independent Basketball League.

Circleville beat Cincinnati Friday by the astronomical score of 72 to 18. Saturday morning, they downed Thomas Jones DeMolay, from Cleveland, 93 to 53. That afternoon, they eliminated Western Hills, from Cincinnati, 75 to 49.

In the final game, Circleville met Youngstown and after a tough game came out on top by 67 to 60.

THE FOLLOWING are members of the Circleville squad who played on both winning teams this year and last: Bob Metzger, Johnnie Wardell, Harley Evans, Max Spangler and Marion (Babe) Rhoads. First time members include: Jim Mowery, Norm McPherson, Dick Smith, Bob Hoover, Phil Neff and Ronnie James.

Bill Ankrom, of the Circleville DeMolay Advisory Council, is athletic advisor and coach. Jack Tipton is assistant and Francis Hoover is chairman of the council and local chapter.

Kegler Slated For 50th ABC

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—A man who has missed only two of the 51 previous American Bowling Congress tournaments will highlight action tonight in the 52nd ABC.

Harry Steers of Elmhurst, Ill., will help open the ABC convention week by competing in his 50th tournament. Steers has won three ABC championships, the all-events once, and the doubles title twice.

Eddie Gerzine of Milwaukee still leads the singles with 738, and Harry Zoeller and George Pacropis of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., lead the doubles field with 1,365.

Tribe Stands Better This Year Than '54

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Off to a better start than last year, the Cleveland Indians wind up the first week of the season tonight by playing their first 1955 contest under lights and their first in the new home park of the Kansas City Athletics.

The split of a doubleheader in Chicago yesterday, a 3-1 loss and a 4-1 victory, dropped the Indians a game behind the Boston Red Sox.

They have to step up that rate if they are going to break the 111-victory record they put in the American League books last year. The Tribesmen have been talking about that at this early stage of the campaign. After their opener victory the dressing-room gag was: "111 more to go."

In the record - setting pennant drive last year, Cleveland lost six of its first nine games and on April 24 was in last place.

Mike Garcia will pitch tonight against Alex Kellner. Mike will be trying to match Bob Lemon at two victories. Lemon hurled a five-hitter at the White Sox in the Chicago nightcap, which was finished under lights. His pitching rival was the same one he beat in the opener in Cleveland, Virgil Trucks.

Vic Wertz provided Lemon his victory margin with a 420-foot homer which broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth inning. It came after Ralph Kiner had singled off Trucks. Singles by Lemon and Larry Doby, with a walk to Bob Avila in between, produced the first Tribe run in the fifth. The final tally, in the seventh, was scored on Doby's sacrifice fly after a walk and Avila's single.

Jameson Victor In Women's Test

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Betty Jameson, the San Antonio miss who's been winning golf championships for 20 years, led the gals of the links toward Carrollton, Ga., today and the next stop on the winter tour.

She had a check for $1,000 in her purse, the reward for winning the $5,000 Babe Zaharias Open with a record score.

Miss Jameson, the graying Texas veteran, played an easy round of 1-over-par 74 yesterday to win by eight strokes. Her 210 was the record for the 54-hole tournament over the 6,219-yard Beaumont Country Club Course. It was nine strokes under par.

Tony Trabert To Stay Amateur

HOUSTON (AP) — Tony Trabert, looking more each day like the heir apparent to Vic Seixas' national tennis championship, says he won't turn pro at least before the next Davis Cup challenge round.

Trabert was top-seeded for the 21st Annual River Oaks Country Club tournament which started today. He won his fifth straight tourney over Seixas yesterday.

The husky young star from Cincinnati with the slashing game took out the nationally ranked No. 1 man from invitational tourney.

Snead Captures Greensboro Open

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP)—Sam Snead, an infrequent tournament player approaching his 43rd birthday, is still the old master of the Greensboro Open tourney.

The slamming man from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., who won the inaugural tournament in 1938, came through with a last hole birdie yesterday to take his fifth Greensboro tournament.

He edged Art Wall Jr. of Pocono Manor, Pa., and Julius Boros of Southern Pines, N. C., by one stroke with a 273 total. Snead earned $2,200 in the $12,500 event. Dow Finsterwald of Athens, Ohio, ended up with 286 and $140.

Circleville DeMolay Cage Squad Wins State Title For 2nd Time

Circleville DeMolay's basketball squad has again taken the Class A trophy in the DeMolay State Tournament.

They had to down four teams Friday and Saturday at Canton to win. The Circleville group won the 1954 tourney held in Troy and were also winners this past season in the Pickaway County Independent Basketball League.

Circleville beat Cincinnati Friday by the astronomical score of 72 to 18. Saturday morning, they downed Thomas Jones DeMolay, from Cleveland, 93 to 53. That afternoon, they eliminated Western Hills, from Cincinnati, 75 to 49.

In the final game, Circleville met Youngstown and after a tough game came out on top by 67 to 60.

THE FOLLOWING are members of the Circleville squad who played on both winning teams this year and last: Bob Metzger, Johnnie Wardell, Harley Evans, Max Spangler and Marion (Babe) Rhoads. First time members include: Jim Mowery, Norm McPherson, Dick Smith, Bob Hoover, Phil Neff and Ronnie James.

Bill Ankrom, of the Circleville DeMolay Advisory Council, is athletic advisor and coach. Jack Tipton is assistant and Francis Hoover is chairman of the council and local chapter.

Profits Found Running Ahead Of Predictions

3 Of 4 Firms Reporting So Far Say 1955 Better Than Last Year's Tally

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Profits this year are running ahead of last year by a margin wider than few but the most optimistic foresaw.

The first 65 corporations to report on earnings after taxes in the first three months of operations show three out of four doing better this year than last.

Combined, their net profits are 21 per cent higher than in the first quarter of 1954.

Partly this is because business is good this year. Partly it's because business this time last year was mediocre to poor for many companies.

Then many companies were running on reduced production schedules. Sales were down and gross profits with them. A sizable number, however, maintained their equilibrium because reduced taxes kept net income from sliding.

This year tax rates are at about the same level as last. The gains this year, therefore, reflect increased sales or trimmed operating costs, or both.

The gain in earnings brings joy to the stockholders, since it holds promise of generous dividend payments ahead.

The big bull market in stocks was built in part on expectation that earnings would be up this year and that dividends, too, might rise.

Professional traders look ahead and are more interested in what is to come than what has happened. The flood of earnings statements now spouting from the accountants' desks is ancient history in the stock market—but a reassuring and gratifying story.

The profit gains aren't uniform by any means. Eighteen of the 65 companies show a drop in earnings. Two firms operated at a loss. A year ago there were five in that plight.

Nor are the first 65 companies a big enough sample to set the pattern for the thousands yet to report. But the 65 are widely scattered through many industries. And they vary just as widely in size.

For many of the companies the first quarter of their fiscal year is December, January and February. For others it's the calendar quarter of January, February and March.

Striking profit gains this year are reported by some of the steel companies and the railroads. In both fields the early months of 1954 were slowdown periods. Steel production and earnings shrank. For some railroads the red ink came out on the accountants' desks.

This year both are doing better than they had expected only a short time ago.

Chemicals are among the profit gainers, reflecting better sales. Building material producers are more prosperious, as befits suppliers for the big building boom. Textile firms look better this year—in many cases because they looked so bad a year ago. Mining companies have better profit reports, aided by increased demand for their products and by higher prices.

Among the food companies to report early, more show declines in profits this year than advances. So do tool makers and distillers.

Banks and finance companies aren't included in the 65 companies of the sample. But most banks have reported earning gains this year, helped by larger funds available for investment and higher returns on securities.

Combined, the 65 companies report profits of $269,230,998. A year ago the same 65 had combined earnings of $222,093,483.

Montgomery Video Theater Battling Problem Of Virus

NEW YORK (AP)—It would be quite understandable if a truck loaded with penicillin backed up today at the studio where actors will be rehearsing for tonight's Robert Montgomery show.

It's not that anyone is ill, they're just cautious. The reason for the apprehension is that the people connected with the show haven't quite recovered yet from the virus that hit Montgomery last week.

Montgomery's virus turned out to be a $12,000 virus. It cost at least that much, maybe more. The cost to assorted nervous systems, however, was even greater because at the last minute the show had to be canceled, after almost two weeks of rehearsal, and a film of an old program had to be substituted.

A quick examination of old kinescopes, and it was decided to repeat a program about the problems of the aged, which was quite apropos since all hands were aging rapidly that Monday.

Joe Bailey, a co-producer, found the film. But two films are required to run simultaneously during a TV film showing in case one breaks. Where do we get the second film?

Somebody remembered they had donated a film copy to a day center up in the Bronx for the aged. But being a day center, it was now closed. Somebody had to find somebody else to unlock the building.

With a second film in hand, came a series of frantic calls to get clearances from the American Federation of Radio Artists, the actors' union, and from the authors. The actors, the authors and the technicians who made the show originally would have to be paid again, at least a portion of their original take. That came to $12,000.

Donner Pass Hit By Major Snow

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A heavy late spring snow storm slowed highway traffic to a crawl last night in the Donner Summit section of U. S. highway 40.

One driver reported it took him six hours to travel six miles. Some busses and many cars, he reported, had skidded off the road.

Hundreds of cars were in the area for the North American skiing championships. The slalom races were run in a near blizzard nearly obscuring the slalom gates.

The snowfall was estimated at more than 10 inches.

GLENHAUSEN, Germany (AP)—The Rev. Johannes Haussner, a German Roman Catholic priest, volunteered to conduct services from the U. S. Army's 12th Infantry Regiment when the regular chaplain went on leave.

But on his way to preside at a mass for troops his car skidded on an icy road and was wrecked. The soldiers passed the hat and collected almost $1,000 to buy a new Volkswagen for Father Haussner.

VA Information For Veterans

Q — I am taking on-the-job training under the Korean GI Bill. Although I have not completed my training, my employer has increased my pay so that now I am receiving the beginning wages paid to a fully-trained worker. Does that mean my GI allowance will be cut off?

A—Not necessarily. Your GI allowance will not stop, so long as it is established that you still are a trainee in all respects except pay.

Q—Is it possible to collect GI unemployment pay at the same time I am enrolled in school under the Korean GI Bill? Since I am in school, I am not working.

A—No, it is not possible, under the law, to obtain GI unemployment allowances while you are enrolled in training under the Korean GI Bill. Although you may not be working, you are drawing monthly GI training allowances from the Government.

Q—I am entitled to increased disability compensation pay by reason of my dependents. What does VA consider as the effective date of those increased payments?

A—The effective date of increased payments because of dependents is the date on which VA receives evidence establishing entitlement to the extra pay.

Q—A veteran-friend of mine who had been getting a pension somehow failed to send VA his annual income questionnaire. As a result, his pension has been stopped. If he now sends the questionnaire to VA, and if his income is below the legal maximum, will the payments be resumed?

A—If he returns the questionnaire within one year from the date it was originally sent to him, he will receive his pension payments all the way back to the date they were cut off. If he waits longer than one year, the payments will begin as of the date of receipt of the questionnaire or the date a new claim is filed. All this presupposes that the veteran's income is below the legal maximum for a pension.

Civil Service Restores Jobs To Hundreds

CINCINNATI (AP)—The U. S. Civil Service Commission is restoring federal jobs on the average of two every working day to employes who were "wrongfully discharged, demoted or suspended," a commissioner disclosed today.

Commissioner George M. Moore said 1,443 such employes had been ordered restored to government employment since January 1953. He did not break down the figures in separate categories for discharged, demoted and suspended in his speech prepared for the Kentucky Indiana and Ohio chapters of the National Assn. of Postmasters.

Nor did he indicate the reasons these men and women were originally discharged — whether for alleged subversion, security, dishonesty or incompetence.

"In the vast majority of these cases, restoration to employment by action of the commission has meant hundreds of dollars or back pay for each employe so affected," Moore said.

The commission also has called attention to hundreds of other cases where proposed action would have violated federal rules and regulations, he told the postmasters.

Of the 39,000 postmasters in the United States, 461 permanent postmasters have been removed from office since January 1953 because of embezzlement, tampering with the mails, falsification of records and for misconduct and mismanagement, Moore said and insisted:

"None has been removed because of his political beliefs."

Ex-Teacher Held As Counterfeiter

CLEVELAND (AP)—Charged with counterfeiting half dollars and other coins, Edmond S. Hamilton, 29, Mineral Ridge, Ohio, will be arraigned before U. S. Commissioner H. A. Horn this afternoon.

Hamilton, a former high school teacher at Kinsman, Trumbull County, was arrested Friday at the U. S. Gypsum Co. in Warren where he was employment supervisor. He is the son of the Rev. W. S. Hamilton, pastor of Richard Brown Memorial Methodist Church, Youngstown.

Profits Found Running Ahead Of Predictions

3 Of 4 Firms Reporting So Far Say 1955 Better Than Last Year's Tally

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Profits this year are running ahead of last year by a margin wider than few but the most optimistic foresaw.

The first 65 corporations to report on earnings after taxes in the first three months of operations show three out of four doing better this year than last.

Combined, their net profits are 21 per cent higher than in the first quarter of 1954.

Partly this is because business is good this year. Partly it's because business this time last year was mediocre to poor for many companies.

Then many companies were running on reduced production schedules. Sales were down and gross profits with them. A sizable number, however, maintained their equilibrium because reduced taxes kept net income from sliding.

This year tax rates are at about the same level as last. The gains this year, therefore, reflect increased sales or trimmed operating costs, or both.

The gain in earnings brings joy to the stockholders, since it holds promise of generous dividend payments ahead.

The big bull market in stocks was built in part on expectation that earnings would be up this year and that dividends, too, might rise.

Professional traders look ahead and are more interested in what is to come than what has happened. The flood of earnings statements now spouting from the accountants' desks is ancient history in the stock market—but a reassuring and gratifying story.

The profit gains aren't uniform by any means. Eighteen of the 65 companies show a drop in earnings. Two firms operated at a loss. A year ago there were five in that plight.

Nor are the first 65 companies a big enough sample to set the pattern for the thousands yet to report. But the 65 are widely scattered through many industries. And they vary just as widely in size.

For many of the companies the first quarter of their fiscal year is December, January and February. For others it's the calendar quarter of January, February and March.

Striking profit gains this year are reported by some of the steel companies and the railroads. In both fields the early months of 1954 were slowdown periods. Steel production and earnings shrank. For some railroads the red ink came out on the accountants' desks.

This year both are doing better than they had expected only a short time ago.

Chemicals are among the profit gainers, reflecting better sales. Building material producers are more prosperious, as befits suppliers for the big building boom. Textile firms look better this year —in many cases because they looked so bad a year ago. Mining companies have better profit reports, aided by increased demand for their products and by higher prices.

Among the food companies to report early, more show declines in profits this year than advances. So do tool makers and distillers.

Banks and finance companies aren't included in the 65 companies of the sample. But most banks have reported earning gains this year, helped by larger funds available for investment and higher returns on securities.

Combined, the 65 companies report profits of $269,230,998. A year ago the same 65 had combined earnings of $222,093,483.

Hal Boyle Says:

Nasser Is Bent On Reform

CAIRO (AP)—It is one thing to run a revolution. It is quite another to build up a nation after you have won a revolution.

Lt. Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, the 37-year-old strong man of Egypt, spent 10 years plotting the army's overthrow of King Farouk. That was accomplished nearly three years ago. Nasser now seems quietly determined to devote the rest of his life to carrying out a reform program that will cure his backward country of its ancient ills.

He told of his hopes the other day in a rare interview granted to a group of visiting American newsmen. Coming into the anteroom of his headquarters, you had the feeling the revolution had just been pulled off a few moments before.

It was crowded with milling army officers and businessmen, all anxious to reach the leader's ear. Armed guards lounged by the windows, carefully scrutinized each visitor who entered.

Prime Minister Nasser, 6-feet and handsome, greeted the news men pleasantly, answered each question slowly and thoughtfully. He spoke in perfect English.

Nasser, who proved himself a master plotter in his seizure of power, spoke many times bitterly of "the landlords" whom he holds responsible for Egypt's poverty and past corruption. Millions of acres of land have been redistributed to peasants under his regime.

"No man now can control more than 300 acres," he said.

His problems range from providing fertilizer to small farmers to the building of giant irrigation and industrial projects. But Nasser emphasized the new regime's attack on illiteracy. Less than one out of four of Egypt's teeming 22 millions now can read or write.

"We plan to build 4,000 new schools in the next 10 years," he said. "Last year we completed 368, more than had ever been built in so short a time before."

He indicated he felt free elections were meaningless until the voters were educated enough to vote for their own best interests.

The impression gained by his listeners was that neither Nasser nor his revolutionary council of young army officers intends to step down from power until the reform program has modernized Egypt. Of this task Nasser has written: "It is not in the twinkling of an eye that one is able to set right the waste of so many centuries."

Nasser, a quiet, self-controlled dynamo, never raised his voice. It is his philosophy: "We are strong when we remain calm."

Even when one newsman brashly questioned whether any of Nasser's own relatives had benefitted from the land redistribution program, the prime minister, instead of bristling, merely looked at him for a moment, then said quietly, "No."

Nasser said he saw no solution to the tense situation with Israel, because of the pressure from hundreds of thousands of Arabs dispossessed there.

"We cannot control these refugees—they want to return to their homeland," he said. "On the frontier we are afraid of the Israelis and they are afraid of us."

At the close of the interview Nasser presented each visitor with an autographed portrait.

Some observers in Cairo see Nasser as a young idealist trying to carry out a socialistic program that will collapse of its own weight.

"Already the people are beginning to ask, 'The revolution was fine—but now what's in it for me?' " one said.

Others feel that Nasser has grown in stature with his job, and that through his hold on the loyalty of the young nationalistic officers he can sit in the saddle of power for a long time to come.

All agree that Nasser, the postal clerk's son who threw out a king, has been personally incorruptible and that he has made progress in improving his country. They also agree that Nasser has stubborn dreams of a larger political role for Egypt in Africa, the Middle East — and the world.

Texans Shell Out For Cancer, Salk

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Folks around here shelled out $22,251.29 yesterday to fight cancer — but they didn't forget Dr. Jonas Salk, who developed the polio vaccine.

They plan to send the University of Pittsburgh researcher a new car and a plow.

A "telethon" by radio and TV was held 6½ hours to raise cancer funds. Among many items donated was a new Oldsmobile. A listener, Jim Pearson, suggested the car to Salk as an appreciation gesture.

KGNC and KGNC-TV announcers asked the public's reaction. Viewers and listeners said they liked the idea.

Then a farm equipment company donated a plow to Salk. However, it was learned from Pittsburgh that he does not have a farm.

Both elevate the authority of the state and degrade the individual to a thing controlled by the state. Both hated the United States and the Soviet Universal State is conducting a world-wide war against this country now.

It would seem to be more consistent and more fitting for a liberal, such as Max Lerner proclaims himself to be, to oppose Marxism as vehemently as he opposed Fascism. On the other hand, one would have expected him to keep the mails open to all ideas, including those which he abhors.

Any other view seems to me to violate, to obliterate "the image of a free society.'

Many opponents of Hitler and the Nazi were prepared to risk the institutions that guard our liberties in the vehemence of their opposition. They failed to realize that they were inaugurating an era of conformity by pressure of majority opinion. Now the precedents they set are being turned upon them. The current practice of the Post Office to decide what Americans should know is an outcome of their activities.

new safe All-in-One capsule discovery for

EASY REDUCING

Science now helps you take off your fat while you eat the foods you choose

Do you like sweets, candy, cake, butter, gravy potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but NOW, right NOW, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why...

Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping give the feeling of a full, contented stomach. In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

fat goes fast

Hal Boyle Says:

Nasser Is Bent On Reform

CAIRO (AP)—It is one thing to run a revolution. It is quite another to build up a nation after you have won a revolution.

Lt. Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, the 37-year-old strong man of Egypt, spent 10 years plotting the army's overthrow of King Farouk. That was accomplished nearly three years ago. Nasser now seems quietly determined to devote the rest of his life to carrying out a reform program that will cure his backward country of its ancient ills.

He told of his hopes the other day in a rare interview granted to a group of visiting American newsmen. Coming into the anteroom of his headquarters, you had the feeling the revolution had just been pulled off a few moments before.

It was crowded with milling army officers and businessmen, all anxious to reach the leader's ear. Armed guards lounged by the windows, carefully scrutinized each visitor who entered.

Prime Minister Nasser, 6-feet and handsome, greeted the news men pleasantly, answered each question slowly and thoughtfully. He spoke in perfect English.

Nasser, who proved himself a master plotter in his seizure of power, spoke many times bitterly of "the landlords" whom he holds responsible for Egypt's poverty and past corruption. Millions of acres of land have been redistributed to peasants under his regime.

"No man now can control more than 300 acres," he said.

His problems range from providing fertilizer to small farmers to the building of giant irrigation and industrial projects. But Nasser emphasized the new regime's attack on illiteracy. Less than one out of four of Egypt's teeming 22 millions now can read or write.

"We plan to build 4,000 new schools in the next 10 years," he said. "Last year we completed 368, more than had ever been built in so short a time before."

He indicated he felt free elections were meaningless until the voters were educated enough to vote for their own best interests.

The impression gained by his listeners was that neither Nasser nor his revolutionary council of young army officers intends to step down from power until the reform program has modernized Egypt. Of this task Nasser has written: "It is not in the twinkling of an eye that one is able to set right the waste of so many centuries."

Nasser, a quiet, self-controlled dynamo, never raised his voice. It is his philosophy: "We are strong when we remain calm."

Even when one newsman brashly questioned whether any of Nasser's own relatives had benefitted from the land redistribution program, the prime minister, instead of bristling, merely looked at him for a moment, then said quietly, "No."

Nasser said he saw no solution to the tense situation with Israel, because of the pressure from hundreds of thousands of Arabs dispossessed there.

"We cannot control these refugees—they want to return to their homeland," he said. "On the frontier we are afraid of the Israelis and they are afraid of us."

At the close of the interview Nasser presented each visitor with an autographed portrait.

Some observers in Cairo see Nasser as a young idealist trying to carry out a socialistic program that will collapse of its own weight.

"Already the people are beginning to ask, 'The revolution was fine—but now what's in it for me?' " one said.

Others feel that Nasser has grown in stature with his job, and that through his hold on the loyalty of the young nationalistic officers he can sit in the saddle of power for a long time to come.

All agree that Nasser, the postal clerk's son who threw out a king, has been personally incorruptible and that he has made progress in improving his country. They also agree that Nasser has stubborn dreams of a larger political role for Egypt in Africa, the Middle East — and the world.

Texans Shell Out For Cancer, Salk

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Folks around here shelled out $22,251.29 yesterday to fight cancer — but they didn't forget Dr. Jonas Salk, who developed the polio vaccine.

They plan to send the University of Pittsburgh researcher a new car and a plow.

A "telethon" by radio and TV was held 6½ hours to raise cancer funds. Among many items donated was a new Oldsmobile. A listener, Jim Pearson, suggested the car to Salk as an appreciation gesture.

KGNC and KGNC-TV announcers asked the public's reaction. Viewers and listeners said they liked the idea.

Then a farm equipment company donated a plow to Salk. However, it was learned from Pittsburgh that he does not have a farm.

theory both are a rejection of the American concept of the rights of the individual to freedom of choice, to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Both elevate the authority of the state and degrade the individual to a thing controlled by the state. Both hated the United States and the Soviet Universal State is conducting a world-wide war against this country now.

It would seem to be more consistent and more fitting for a liberal, such as Max Lerner proclaims himself to be, to oppose Marxism as vehemently as he opposed Fascism. On the other hand, one would have expected him to keep the mails open to all ideas, including those which he abhors. Any other view seems to me to violate, to obliterate "the image of a free society.'

Many opponents of Hitler and the Nazi were prepared to risk the institutions that guard our liberties in the vehemence of their opposition. They failed to realize that they were inaugurating an era of conformity by pressure of majority opinion. Now the precedents they set are being turned upon them. The current practice of the Post Office to decide what Americans should know is an outcome of their activities.

Sewer-Cleaner Hopes For Bonanza

BRIDGENORTH, England (AP)— Albert Peace, a sewer cleaner, has dredged up enough parts through the year to build himself a bicycle—almost.

He wrote a letter to the editor asking for "some kind hearted person to shove a derelict frame through a grid (sewer grill) in the road before my next visit so I can complete my bicycle."

new safe All-in-One capsule discovery for EASY REDUCING
Science now helps you take off your fat while you eat the foods you choose
Do you like sweets, candy, cake, butter, gravy potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but NOW, right NOW, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why...
Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping give the feeling of a full, contented stomach. In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

Zully Hopes His Ring Luck To Change

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the week Orlando Zulueta hopes his luck turns. The 26-year-old Cuban takes on lightweight champion Jimmy Carter in a non-title 10 in Washington Wednesday night and if he upsets the 135-pound boss he might get a shot at the title.

There were a few years when the fast jabbing Zully was either the No. 1 contender or high up in the division and he never got close to a chance at the champ.

Now, after three straight losses and one draw, he's meeting the lightweight king. Two of the defeats, to Kid Howard and Kenny Lane, were highly controversial but they read the same as the other losses in the record books.

There'll be a lot of action on Friday night when 19-year-old Willie Pastrano faces Willie Troy of Washington in a 10-rounder in the Chicago Stadium. Win or lose, the hard-working Troy makes a lively fight. Pastrano made good March 23 when he whipped Al Andrews in the same arena.

Tonight's fights feature middleweights and welterweights, boxing's two busiest divisions. Salt Lake City's Milo Savage, another crowd-pleasing 160-pounder, meets Bobby Boyd of Chicago in a 10 in New York's St. Nicholas Arena. In the rival show in Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena, welters Johnny Busso of New York and Gene Poirer of Niagara Falls, N. Y., collide in the top 10.

CHS Tigers Drop Twin Bill To Athens' Nine On Saturday

"Comedy of Errors" might be the title of a play but it was a good description of the play of Circleville High School's baseball team as they dropped a doubleheader Saturday to Athens, 4-2 and 3-1.

In the first game, the Tigers came up with three miscues—five in the nightcap. Of the seven runs Athens scored in both contests only two were earned —and they came in the opening contest.

Jim McConnell gave up seven hits in the opening game while walking five. Athens grabbed a 2-0 lead but CHS tied it up; the winners then put two singles together for another run and added an unearned one in the fifth.

In the second contest, Athens took a 1-0 lead on a triple and a bad throw. Again CHS tied it up but Athens went ahead on another bad throw. Two more errors gave the winners their final tally.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
BATTING

Al Kaline, Detroit Tigers—Hammered three home runs, two of them in the sixth inning to tie a major league record, and a single to drive in six runs as the Tigers trounced the Kansas City Athletics, 16-0.

PITCHING

Murray Dickson, Philadelphia Phillies—Limited New York to two singles as the Phillies defeated the Giants, 4-2, in the second game of a doubleheader.

Toledo, St. Paul Tied For AA Lead

ST. PAUL (AP)—St. Paul swept a Sunday doubleheader from Indianapolis by identical 8-3 scores to move into a tie with the Toledo Sox for first place in the American Association.

Toledo, after beating Denver's Bears three times in a row, suffered its first loss of the season in the opener of a twin bill with Omaha, 4-1. The Sox rallied to take the nightcap, 6-4.

Denver posted its first victory of the campaign in the opener of a doubleheader at Charleston, 8-0. However, the Bears dropped the second tilt, 6-4, to remain in the league cellar, three games back of Toledo and St. Paul.

Dick Gernert's grand slam homer gave Louisville an 8-5 second-game victory and a split with Minneapolis. The Millers took the opener, 6-4.

Social Outcast After Third Stake

LINCOLN, R. I. (AP)—Social Outcast, who has taken the place of Native Dancer as the No. 1 horse in Alfred G. Vanderbilt's stable, goes after his third rich stakes victory of the year today in the $50,000 Lincoln Special.

The 5-year-old gelded son of Shut Out-Pansy, who won the McLennan Handicap at Hialeah Park and edged Fisherman in the recent $75,000 John B. Campbell Memorial at Bowie, picks up top weight of 126 pounds for Lincoln Downs' test.

Maybe Ted Left His Bats In Boston

Sox Leading League In Both Standings And Team Slugging

The Associated Press

Ted Williams was still some 2,000 miles away from Fenway Park today but could it be that the Boston Red Sox have been using the power-laden bats he left behind?

The end of the first week of the infant baseball season finds the Red Sox not only leading the American League with five victories in six games but they also are on top with an astonishing .330 team batting average and 11 home runs.

The Red Sox yesterday pounded eight Baltimore pitchers for 30 hits, sweeping both ends of a doubleheader 14-5 and 12-9 to leap past Cleveland and New York and grab a full-game lead on the field.

Faye Throneberry, 23-year-old ex-GI filling in for Williams in left field, has done the most toward easing the big guy's absence. The Memphis, Tenn., sophomore, clubbing at a torrid .400, is tied for the league lead with 12 runs batted in. His 10 hits include four doubles and three home runs. He rapped four hits yesterday including a double and home run, drove in four and scored six times.

Catcher Sammy White, another .400 hitter so far, drove home seven runs with five hits including a double and home run. Jackie Jensen, batting .455, knocked in four runs with six hits including a double, triple and homer. Ted Lepcio collected four hits to boost his average to .348 and Billy Goodman is hitting .364.

Boston shared Sunday's spotlight with the Brooklyn Dodgers who continued their unbeaten ways with a sweep of a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 10-3 and 3-2.

Philadelphia's Phillies stunned the Giants with a pair of 4-2 victories to drop New York into a sixth place tie with Cincinnati.

A 10-run first inning started St. Louis off to a 14-1 runaway over Chicago after the Cubs had nipped the Cards in the opener 6-5 with two runs in the ninth. Cincinnati also pulled out a ninth inning 6-5 victory to gain a split with Milwaukee after the Braves had run off with the opener 10-1. It was the Reds' first victory after five straight defeats.

Cleveland and Chicago split a doubleheader, the Indians winnng 4-2 behind Bob Lemon's five-hitter after southpaw Jack Harshman had pitched the White Sox to a 3-1 triumph in the opener. Johnny Schmitz and Spec Shea combined to pitch Washington to a 7-3 victory over their former New York Yankee teammates as Mickey Vernon and Roy Sievers hammered homers against Eddie Lopat.

Young Al Kaline hammered three home runs, two of them in the sixth inning to tie a major league record, as Detroit romped to a 16-0 rout of Kansas City. Steve Gromek yielded seven hits for his second victory, both against the Athletics.

The 20-year-old Kaline also singled to drive in six runs giving him 12 for the season. He leads both leagues with a .560 batting average on 14 hits in 25 times at bat. Teammate Harvey Kuenn also collected four hits, three doubles and a single.

Staley Wins Cincinnati's First Game

ST. LOUIS (AP)—To Gerry Staley, with the clutch help of Ted Kluszewski, belongs the first Cincinnati Redleg victory of the season.

Staley went the route as the Redlegs topped the Milwaukee Braves, 6-5, yesterday in Crosley Field. The Braves crushed the Reds, 10-1, in the opener for the fifth Cincinnati setback.

The 31 - year - old righthander gave up 11 hits and was often in trouble. But he pitched himself right out of it. In the second inning, he loaded the bases on a walk, a double and a walk with no outs. But he managed to end that frame without allowing a run. Bobby Thomson was forced at the plate and Del Crandall hit into the first of three Cincinnati double plays.

After Hank Aaron homered to tie the score, 5-5, in the seventh, Staley still distributed hits but got to stop any further damage.

But Staley needed Klu's help to wrap up the contest. With two out and two on in the ninth, Klu hit a single to center to score Johnny Temple with the tie-breaking run for the victory-starved Reds.

It was Klu, too, who set off a five-run uprising in the fourth. He opened the frame with a homer. Ed Bailey and Wally Post also hit for the circuit. It was the second time in two days the Reds had clubbed three roundtrippers in one inning. However, the Braves outhit the Reds in the nightcap, 11-9.

Zully Hopes His Ring Luck To Change

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the week Orlando Zulueta hopes his luck turns. The 26-year-old Cuban takes on lightweight champion Jimmy Carter in a non-title 10 in Washington Wednesday night and if he upsets the 135-pound boss he might get a shot at the title.

There were a few years when the fast jabbing Zully was either the No. 1 contender or high up in the division and he never got close to a chance at the champ.

Now, after three straight losses and one draw, he's meeting the lightweight king. Two of the defeats, to Kid Howard and Kenny Lane, were highly controversial but they read the same as the other losses in the record books.

There'll be a lot of action on Friday night when 19-year-old Willie Pastrano faces Willie Troy of Washington in a 10-rounder in the Chicago Stadium. Win or lose, the hard-working Troy makes a lively fight. Pastrano made good March 23 when he whipped Al Andrews in the same arena.

Tonight's fights feature middleweights and welterweights, boxing's two busiest divisions. Salt Lake City's Milo Savage, another crowd-pleasing 160-pounder, meets Bobby Boyd of Chicago in a 10 in New York's St. Nicholas Arena. In the rival show in Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena, welters Johnny Busso of New York and Gene Poirer of Niagara Falls, N. Y., collide in the top 10.

CHS Tigers Drop Twin Bill To Athens' Nine On Saturday

"Comedy of Errors" might be the title of a play but it was a good description of the play of Circleville High School's baseball team as they dropped a doubleheader Saturday to Athens, 4-2 and 3-1.

In the first game, the Tigers came up with three miscues—five in the nightcap. Of the seven runs Athens scored in both contests only two were earned—and they came in the opening contest.

Jim McConnell gave up seven hits in the opening game while walking five. Athens grabbed a 2-0 lead but CHS tied it up; the winners then put two singles together for another run and added an unearned one in the fifth.

In the second contest, Athens took a 1-0 lead on a triple and a bad throw. Again CHS tied it up but Athens went ahead on another bad throw. Two more errors gave the winners their final tally.

THE TIGERS travel to Washington C. H. Tuesday for a South Central Ohio League tilt. This will be CHS's only game during the week.

Maybe Ted Left His Bats In Boston

Sox Leading League In Both Standings And Team Slugging

The Associated Press

Ted Williams was still some 2,000 miles away from Fenway Park today but could it be that the Boston Red Sox have been using the power-laden bats he left behind?

The end of the first week of the infant baseball season finds the Red Sox not only leading the American League with five victories in six games but they also are on top with an astonishing .330 team batting average and 11 home runs.

The Red Sox yesterday pounded eight Baltimore pitchers for 30 hits, sweeping both ends of a doubleheader 14-5 and 12-9 to leap past Cleveland and New York and grab a full-game lead on the field.

Faye Throneberry, 23-year-old ex-GI filling in for Williams in left field, has done the most toward easing the big guy's absence. The Memphis, Tenn., sophomore, clubbing at a torrid .400, is tied for the league lead with 12 runs batted in. His 10 hits include four doubles and three home runs. He rapped four hits yesterday including a double and home run, drove in four and scored six times.

Catcher Sammy White, another .400 hitter so far, drove home seven runs with five hits including a double and home run. Jackie Jensen, batting .455, knocked in four runs with six hits including a double, triple and homer. Ted Lepcio collected four hits to boost his average to .348 and Billy Goodman is hitting .364.

Boston shared Sunday's spotlight with the Brooklyn Dodgers who continued their unbeaten ways with a sweep of a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 10-3 and 3-2.

Philadelphia's Phillies stunned the Giants with a pair of 4-2 victories to drop New York into a sixth place tie with Cincinnati.

A 10-run first inning started St. Louis off to a 14-1 runaway over Chicago after the Cubs had nipped the Cards in the opener 6-5 with two runs in the ninth. Cincinnati also pulled out a ninth inning 6-5 victory to gain a split with Milwaukee after the Braves had run off with the opener 10-1. It was the Reds' first victory after five straight defeats.

Cleveland and Chicago split a doubleheader, the Indians winnng 4-2 behind Bob Lemon's five-hitter after southpaw Jack Harshman had pitched the White Sox to a 3-1 triumph in the opener. Johnny Schmitz and Spec Shea combined to pitch Washington to a 7-3 victory over their former New York Yankee teammates as Mickey Vernon and Roy Sievers hammered homers against Eddie Lopat.

Young Al Kaline hammered three home runs, two of them in the sixth inning to tie a major league record, as Detroit romped to a 16-0 rout of Kansas City. Steve Gromek yielded seven hits for his second victory, both against the Athletics.

The 20-year-old Kaline also singled to drive in six runs giving him 12 for the season. He leads both leagues with a .560 batting average on 14 hits in 25 times at bat. Teammate Harvey Kuenn also collected four hits, three doubles and a single.

Toledo, St. Paul Tied For AA Lead

ST. PAUL (AP)—St. Paul swept a Sunday doubleheader from Indianapolis by identical 8-3 scores to move into a tie with the Toledo Sox for first place in the American Association.

Toledo, after beating Denver's Bears three times in a row, suffered its first loss of the season in the opener of a twin bill with Omaha, 4-1. The Sox rallied to take the nightcap, 6-4.

Denver posted its first victory of the campaign in the opener of a doubleheader at Charleston, 8-0. However, the Bears dropped the second tilt, 6-4, to remain in the league cellar, three games back of Toledo and St. Paul.

Dick Gernert's grand slam homer gave Louisville an 8-5 second-game victory and a split with Minneapolis. The Millers took the opener, 6-4.

Social Outcast After Third Stake

LINCOLN, R. I. (AP)—Social Outcast, who has taken the place of Native Dancer as the No. 1 horse in Alfred G. Vanderbilt's stable, goes after his third rich stakes victory of the year today in the $50,000 Lincoln Special.

The 5-year-old gelded son of Shut Out-Pansy, who won the McLennan Handicap at Hialeah Park and edged Fisherman in the recent $75,000 John B. Campbell Memorial at Bowie, picks up top weight of 126 pounds for Lincoln Downs' test.

Staley Wins Cincinnati's First Game

ST. LOUIS (AP)—To Gerry Staley, with the clutch help of Ted Kluszewski, belongs the first Cincinnati Redleg victory of the season.

Staley went the route as the Redlegs topped the Milwaukee Braves, 6-5, yesterday in Crosley Field. The Braves crushed the Reds, 10-1, in the opener for the fifth Cincinnati setback.

The 31 - year - old righthander gave up 11 hits and was often in trouble. But he pitched himself right out of it. In the second inning, he loaded the bases on a walk, a double and a walk with no outs. But he managed to end that frame without allowing a run. Bobby Thomson was forced at the plate and Del Crandall hit into the first of three Cincinnati double plays.

After Hank Aaron homered to tie the score, 5-5, in the seventh, Staley still distributed hits but got to stop any further damage.

But Staley needed Klu's help to wrap up the contest. With two out and two on in the ninth, Klu hit a single to center to score Johnny Temple with the tie-breaking run for the victory-starved Reds.

It was Klu, too, who set off a five-run uprising in the fourth. He opened the frame with a homer. Ed Bailey and Wally Post also hit for the circuit. It was the second time in two days the Reds had clubbed three roundtrippers in one inning. However, the Braves outhit the Reds in the nightcap, 11-9.

Circleville DeMolay Cage Squad Wins State Title For 2nd Time

Circleville DeMolay's basketball squad has again taken the Class A trophy in the DeMolay State Tournament.

They had to down four teams Friday and Saturday at Canton to win. The Circleville group won the 1954 tourney held in Troy and were also winners this past season in the Pickaway County Independent Basketball League.

Circleville beat Cincinnati Friday by the astronomical score of 72 to 18. Saturday morning, they downed Thomas Jones DeMolay, from Cleveland, 93 to 53. That afternoon, they eliminated Western Hills, from Cincinnati, 75 to 49.

In the final game, Circleville met Youngstown and after a tough game came out on top by 67 to 60.

THE FOLLOWING are members of the Circleville squad who played on both winning teams this year and last: Bob Metzger, Johnnie Wardell, Harley Evans, Max Spangler and Marion (Babe) Rhoads. First time members include: Jim Mowery, Norm McPherson, Dick Smith, Bob Hoover, Phil Neff and Ronnie James.

Bill Ankrom, of the Circleville DeMolay Advisory Council, is athletic advisor and coach. Jack Tipton is assistant and Francis Hoover is chairman of the council and local chapter.

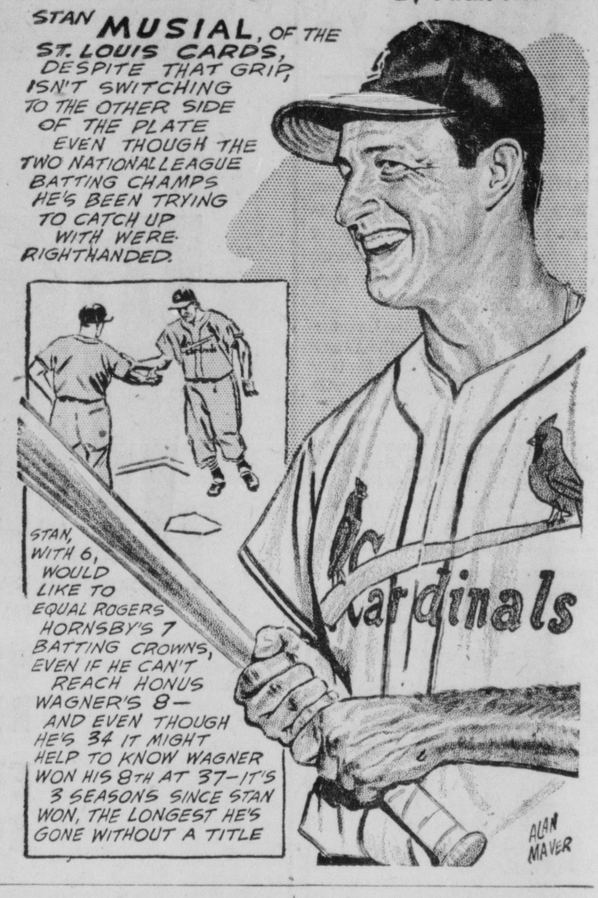
Canton Kegler Grabs Ohio Lead

CINCINNATI (AP)—Bob Storch of North Canton has grabbed the top spot in the all-events division of the 51st annual Ohio State Bowling Assn. tournament by toppling over 1,884 pins.

Storch rolled 669 in singles, 622 in doubles and 593 in the team event during the sixth weekend of the meet. The state competition ends next Saturday and Sunday.

TRYING FOR SEVEN - - - By Alan Maver



Kegler Slated For 50th ABC

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—A man who has missed only two of the 51 previous American Bowling Congress tournaments will highlight action tonight in the 52nd ABC.

Harry Steers of Elmhurst, Ill., will help open the ABC convention week by competing in his 50th tournament. Steers has won three ABC championships, the all-events once, and the doubles title twice.

Eddie Gerzine of Milwaukee still leads the singles with 738, and Harry Zoeller and George Pacropis of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., lead the doubles field with 1,365.

Boxing Fatality Report Awaited

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—The state athletic commission will make a formal report Thursday on the weight Bryan Thompson received fatal injuries.

Thompson, 23-year-old Philadelphian, died yesterday in St. Francis Hospital where he had been unconscious most of the time since he collapsed in the ring two-and-a half weeks ago.

He had been struck three times on the chin in succession by Jerry Leudee of New Haven, Conn., in his first professional fight here March 29.

Tribe Stands Better This Year Than '54

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Off to a better start than last year, the Cleveland Indians wind up the first week of the season tonight by playing their first 1955 contest under lights and their first in the new home park of the Kansas City Athletics.

The split of a doubleheader in Chicago yesterday, a 3-1 loss and a 4-1 victory, dropped the Indians a game behind the Boston Red Sox.

They have to step up that rate if they are going to break the 111-victory record they put in the American League books last year. The Tribesmen have been talking about that at this early stage of the campaign. After their opener victory the dressing-room gag was: "111 more to go."

In the record - setting pennant drive last year, Cleveland lost six of its first nine games and on April 24 was in last place.

Mike Garcia will pitch tonight against Alex Kellner. Mike will be trying to match Bob Lemon at two victories. Lemon hurled a five-hitter at the White Sox in the Chicago nightcap, which was finished under lights. His pitching rival was the same one he beat in the opener in Cleveland, Virgil Trucks.

Vic Wertz provided Lemon his victory margin with a 420-foot homer which broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth inning. It came after Ralph Kiner had singled off Trucks. Singles by Lemon and Larry Doby, with a walk to Bob Avila in between, produced the first Tribe run in the fifth. The final tally, in the seventh, was scored on Doby's sacrifice fly after a walk and Avila's single.

Jameson Victor In Women's Test

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Betty Jameson, the San Antonio miss who's been winning golf championships for 20 years, led the gals of the links toward Carrollton, Ga., today and the next stop on the winter tour.

She had a check for $1,000 in her purse, the reward for winning the $5,000 Babe Zaharias Open with a record score.

Miss Jameson, the graying Texas veteran, played an easy round of 1-over-par 74 yesterday to win by eight strokes. Her 210 was the record for the 54-hole tournament over the 6,219-yard Beaumont Country Club Course. It was nine strokes under par.

Tony Trabert To Stay Amateur

HOUSTON (AP) — Tony Trabert, looking more each day like the heir apparent to Vic Seixas' national tennis championship, says he won't turn pro at least before the next Davis Cup challenge round.

Trabert was top-seeded for the 21st Annual River Oaks Country Club tournament which started today. He won his fifth straight tourney over Seixas yesterday.

The husky young star from Cincinnati with the slashing game took out the nationally ranked No. 1 man from invitational tourney.

Snead Captures Greensboro Open

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP)—Sam Snead, an infrequent tournament player approaching his 43rd birthday, is still the old master of the Greensboro Open tourney.

The slamming man from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., who won the inaugural tournament in 1938, came through with a last hole birdie yesterday to take his fifth Greensboro tournament.

He edged Art Wall Jr. of Pocono Manor, Pa., and Julius Boros of Southern Pines, N. C., by one stroke with a 273 total. Snead earned $2,200 in the $12,500 event. Dow Finsterwald of Athens, Ohio, ended up with 286 and $140.

Circleville DeMolay Cage Squad Wins State Title For 2nd Time

Circleville DeMolay's basketball squad has again taken the Class A trophy in the DeMolay State Tournament.

They had to down four teams Friday and Saturday at Canton to win. The Circleville group won the 1954 tourney held in Troy and were also winners this past season in the Pickaway County Independent Basketball League.

Circleville beat Cincinnati Friday by the astronomical score of 72 to 18. Saturday morning, they downed Thomas Jones DeMolay, from Cleveland, 93 to 53. That afternoon, they eliminated Western Hills, from Cincinnati, 75 to 49.

In the final game, Circleville met Youngstown and after a tough game came out on top by 67 to 60.

THE FOLLOWING are members of the Circleville squad who played on both winning teams this year and last: Bob Metzger, Johnnie Wardell, Harley Evans, Max Spangler and Marion (Babe) Rhoads. First time members include: Jim Mowery, Norm McPherson, Dick Smith, Bob Hoover, Phil Neff and Ronnie James.

Bill Ankrom, of the Circleville DeMolay Advisory Council, is athletic advisor and coach. Jack Tipton is assistant and Francis Hoover is chairman of the council and local chapter.

Box score follows:

DeMolay	G	F	T
McPherson	2	2	6
Metzger	8	3	19
Wardell	8	5	21
Evans	4	2	10

Canton Kegler Grabs Ohio Lead

CINCINNATI (AP)—Bob Storch of North Canton has grabbed the top spot in the all-events division of the 51st annual Ohio State Bowling Assn. tournament by toppling over 1,884 pins.

Storch rolled 669 in singles, 622 in doubles and 593 in the team event during the sixth weekend of the meet. The state competition ends next Saturday and Sunday.

Kegler Slated For 50th ABC

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—A man who has missed only two of the 51 previous American Bowling Congress tournaments will highlight action tonight in the 52nd ABC.

Harry Steers of Elmhurst, Ill., will help open the ABC convention week by competing in his 50th tournament. Steers has won three ABC championships, the all-events once, and the doubles title twice.

Eddie Gerzine of Milwaukee still leads the singles with 738, and Harry Zoeller and George Pacropis of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., lead the doubles field with 1,365.

Boxing Fatality Report Awaited

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—The state athletic commission will make a formal report Thursday on the weight Bryan Thompson received fatal injuries.

Thompson, 23-year-old Philadelphian, died yesterday in St. Francis Hospital where he had been unconscious most of the time since he collapsed in the ring two-and-a half weeks ago.

He had been struck three times on the chin in succession by Jerry Leudee of New Haven, Conn., in his first professional fight here March 29.

Tribe Stands Better This Year Than '54

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Off to a better start than last year, the Cleveland Indians wind up the first week of the season tonight by playing their first 1955 contest under lights and their first in the new home park of the Kansas City Athletics.

The split of a doubleheader in Chicago yesterday, a 3-1 loss and a 4-1 victory, dropped the Indians a game behind the Boston Red Sox.

They have to step up that rate if they are going to break the 111-victory record they put in the American League books last year. The Tribesmen have been talking about that at this early stage of the campaign. After their opener victory the dressing-room gag was: "111 more to go."

In the record - setting pennant drive last year, Cleveland lost six of its first nine games and on April 24 was in last place.

Mike Garcia will pitch tonight against Alex Kellner. Mike will be trying to match Bob Lemon at two victories. Lemon hurled a five-hitter at the White Sox in the Chicago nightcap, which was finished under lights. His pitching rival was the same one he beat in the opener in Cleveland, Virgil Trucks.

Vic Wertz provided Lemon his victory margin with a 420-foot homer which broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth inning. It came after Ralph Kiner had singled off Trucks. Singles by Lemon and Larry Doby, with a walk to Bob Avila in between, produced the first Tribe run in the fifth. The final tally, in the seventh, was scored on Doby's sacrifice fly after a walk and Avila's single.

Jameson Victor In Women's Test

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Betty Jameson, the San Antonio miss who's been winning golf championships for 20 years, led the gals of the links toward Carrollton, Ga., today and the next stop on the winter tour.

She had a check for $1,000 in her purse, the reward for winning the $5,000 Babe Zaharias Open with a record score.

Miss Jameson, the graying Texas veteran, played an easy round of 1-over-par 74 yesterday to win by eight strokes. Her 210 was the record for the 54-hole tournament over the 6,219-yard Beaumont Country Club Course. It was nine strokes under par.

Hey Mate! Watch For USS Pickaway!

Highly Rated Ship Is Named After County

Commander Extends Invitation To All District Residents

Step up the gangplank of the USS Pickaway, folks, and meet the crew of a great ship named in tribute to a great county!

Now resting at San Diego after sharing many important jobs with other units of Uncle Sam's Pacific fleet, the Pickaway was put in direct touch with the local public through a letter from her commander, Capt. B. F. Roeder, USN. He wrote in response to a letter from The Herald, after the Pickaway was mentioned in wire dispatches and the Navy Department confirmed that the big attack transport was named in honor of the county.

(The Herald in a March 15 article detailed some of the great work accomplished by the Pickaway since the ship was launched in the closing days of World War II.)

Captain Roeder's letter noted that a Kingston man is among the Ohio residents serving aboard the vessel. He is Philip Manson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Manson, of Kingston Route 1.

Jackson O. Alexander, of Cambridge; Robert M. Bailey, of Washington C. H.; Carl F. Johnson, of Ohio City; Arlandus T. Jones, of Akron, and James C. Moler, of Hamersville.

For a few months the Pickaway will remain in San Diego, and during that stay in port—and during any subsequent pause she makes in her duties with the Navy—residents of Pickaway County have a gilt-edged invitation from her commander to come aboard, meet the men and look around!

Either from residents of the county on a vacation trip, or from Pickaway County men in the armed forces, The Herald will be waiting to hear from those who get an opportunity to visit the county's "own" representative in America's naval forces.

Meanwhile, in any manner found feasible, Captain Roeder is anxious to cement the friendly link between this district and its namesake Navy transport.

WITH THAT purpose he wrote in part:

"Since assuming command this past February, I have been wondering how we of the Pickaway could get closer to the citizens of the county for which the ship is named. Your letter arrived at a most opportune time and made the contact I'd been seeking.

"We have just returned from a seven-month tour of duty in the Far East. During that time, the ship visited Kobe, Osaka, Sasebo and Yokosuka in Japan; Inchon, Korea; Hong Kong; and Manila. The culmination of the duty was to return one battalion of Marines of the 1st. Marine Division from Inchon to San Diego.

"These were in the first group to return to the States and, upon our arrival on March 17th, we were given a gala welcome which included a parade through the streets of San Diego. In this connection, a large picture of the Pickaway appeared on the front page of the San Diego Union on either March 16th. or 17th. .

"The ship has been assigned a 30-day leave and upkeep period so that the ship's company can take well-earned leave and visit their families and friends. For the next few months, we will be in the San Diego area. . . .

"Subject to your approval, I propose we continue this association, which you so kindly initiated, by periodic exchanges of correspondence.

(Glad indeed to have you aboard, captain! And for local residents who wish to write direct, the address is: USS Pickaway (APA-222), care of Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, Cal.)

"IN ADDITION, we will send you items which may be of interest to the folks of Pickaway County.

"I would like to hereby extend an invitation to any of the good people of Pickaway County who are in San Diego, California, to visit our ship. Arrangements can be made by dropping a post card to me giving their expected date of arrival and where they can be reached in San Diego upon arrival. . . .

"Your interest in our ship is sincerely appreciated. We consider it the best in the fleet and are gratified to know that it is in the minds, and hope it is in the prayers, of the citizens of Pickaway County."

The Herald considers it an honor, and a duty in the service of the community, to keep the men of the Pickaway in touch with events here through daily copies of the newspaper, sent to the ship whenever she happens to be in port.

73 Bolivians Held In Overthrow Plot

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—The Interior Ministry says 73 persons are being held in connection with a plot to slay Bolivian President Victor Paz Estenssoro and return the "oligarchy" to power.

A ministry statement last night charged that the abortive uprising had been planned to coincide with the April 9 celebration of the 1952 revolution which brought Paz Estenssoro's national Revolutionary Movement to power.

Iran's Premier OKd By Parliament

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Iran's Parliament, the Majlis, gave a resounding 92-2 vote of confidence yesterday to Premier Hussein Ala's new crusading government.

When Ala took over from ailing Gen. Fazollah Zahedi April 8, he promised to clean house of "dishonest officials."

JOINS CRUSADE — Glamorous Ava Gardner says, "Your money is urgently needed by the American Cancer Society. Send your contribution to CANCER, care of your post office, and help wipe out man's cruelest enemy."

Ohio Trucker, 28, Bound To Jury

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—Truck driver Robert W. Brewer, 28, of Massillon, Ohio, has been bound to the grand jury for losing 24,235 pounds of somebody else's shrimp in a poker game. Brewer said he lost the shipment, valued at $12,573, in a game in Houston, Tex.

Unable to post $10,000 bond, Brewer was taken to Hinds County jail in Jackson after appearing before U. S. Commissioner Irene Herbert.

Pilot Dislikes Snake In Cockpit

JACKSON, Tenn. (AP)—Just as Lt. Harry Scott of Jackson climbed to 1,500 feet in a National Guard plane for a 500-mile cross-country flight, a snake stuck his head out of the instrument panel.

"I didn't ask his pedigree," said Scott. "At 1,500 feet snakes are snakes to me."

Scott and his companion, Sgt. Bedford Lasley, were back on the ground five minutes after takeoff. Guardsmen had to take the instrument panel out to remove the snake, a 42-inch chicken snake. They killed it.

Prince Aly Khan Here After Yasmin

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Moslem Prince Aly Khan is in Los Angeles today and says he hopes to meet his former wife, Rita Hayworth, to discuss a vacation for their daughter, Yasmin.

The prince, who arrived yesterday by air from a South American tour, said he hopes to take 5-year-old Yasmin to Paris with him.

A divorce settlement approved in Reno, Nev., last November allows the Prince to have his daughter's custody at least six weeks a year. Miss Hayworth is now married to Dick Haymes.
